CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest Bidder to be the Buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more Bidders, the Lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

2. The Purchasers to give their Names and Addresses, and to pay down a Cash Deposit, or the whole of the Purchase-money, if required, in default of which the Lot or Lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

3. The Lots to be taken away at the Buyer's Expense and Risk upon the conclusion of the Sale, and the remainder of the Purchase-money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the Auctioneer, on or before delivery; in default of which the undersigned will not hold themselves responsible if the Lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed; but they will be left at the sole risk of the Purchaser.

4. The Sale of any Article is not to be set aside on account of any error in the description, or imperfection. All Articles are exposed for Public Exhibition one or more days, and are sold just as they are without recourse.

5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the Purchases, no Lot can, on any account, be removed during the Sale.

6. Upon failure to comply with the above Conditions, the Money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all Lots uncleared within three days from conclusion of Sale, shall be re-sold by public or private Sale, without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this Sale, together with all charges attending the same. This Condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this Sale, without such re-sale, if he thinks fit.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Intending Purchasers wishing to avoid the trouble and confusion of making a deposit during the Sale, can make arrangements previous to day of Sale with the Managers or Auctioneers at their Office, 6 East Twenty-third Street.

IT is not claimed that the books described in this Catalogue form a Library. They are only a Collection. Nearly twenty years ago I began a tolerably comprehensive course of historical reading. In selecting the works necessary for this I got into the way of frequenting booksellers' shops, and thus became inoculated with the disease which, in its development, made me a Collector. For many years I found rest after a hard day's work in Wall Street, by spending an hour or two on my way home in one or more places where I could look over recently purchased books. In those days Mr. Sabin's shop in Nassau Street was the favorite resort of book-collectors, and one could meet several of them there nearly every afternoon. The arrival of a box from London, containing new importations of books, was always an occasion of interest, and usually gave rise to keen competition for the privilege of making the first selections. Mr. Sabin was an enthusiastic student of Americana, and I was soon instilled with the same feeling. My first efforts were not directed to the purchase of rarities so much as to early local histories of towns, accounts of Indian fights, and other incidents of special interest. But it is natural to work back to first principles, and so I found myself striving more and more every year to secure the original sources of our knowledge of the discovery and early history of the country. This made me more or less familiar with the works issued in the early part of the sixteenth century and the latter part of the fifteenth. Then I became impressed with the wonderful beauty of these volumes, and I began to study and collect Early Printed Books.

The dispersion of several of the finest libraries in England gave unexpected and most favorable opportunities to secure books of this description. It is not in the range of probability that collectors will ever again have such facilities in this direction as were given by the sale of the Sunderland, Hamilton Palace, Beckford, Syston Park, and Wodhull Libraries. They contained volumes of which bibliographers have written enthusiastically for a hundred and fifty years, and which were generally supposed to be out of the reach of modern collectors. I was fortunate enough to secure many of the more notable of these precious volumes, and to crown fittingly my acquisition of them by the purchase of the most remarkable of all printed books, as it is the first—the Gutenberg Bible. In selecting these examples of early typographical work I have always tried to get books which were not only beautiful and in fine condition but which were inherently valuable. Next to the Gutenberg Bible the oldest printed volume in the collection is the Catholicon of Balbus. It is the fourth book printed with a date (1460), and is the first lexicon or dictionary published. The "De Officiis" of Cicero is remarkable as being the first classic printed and as exhibiting the first example of Greek characters in print, all previous passages having been written in. The collection contains three other First Editions of Cicero. There are to be found also the only known copy of the first printed Arithmetic, the First Editions of Apuleius, Aristotle, St. Augustine, Boccaccio, Cæsar, St. Chrysostom, Columbus, Cortes, Euclid, Euripides, Hesiod, Homer, Horace, Lactantius, Lascaris (the first book printed in Greek), Peter Martyr, Nepos, Petrarch, Pindar, Plato, Plautus, Pliny, Plutarch, Ptolemy, Seneca, Tacitus, Theocritus, Vespucius, and Virgil. It must be borne in mind that these volumes were printed directly from manuscripts and that they have, therefore, the same importance, virtually, as the original classical codices. No matter what may be the estimation in which public opinion holds a classical education, such books as these will possess an attraction for intelligent men and women for all time. They represent the great leaders in Fiction, Poetry, Mathematics, Philosophy, Theology, History, and Travel, and they are the very foundation-stones of the literature of the cultivated world.

The collection is strong in typographical rarities. It contains, in addition to those already named, the first three and the only books printed by John of Spira, the first printer of Venice; the first book printed in Italy; one by the first printers of Paris; one in which signatures were used for the first time; the first volume issued in octavo form; the first book printed by the stereotype process; and many others of almost equal interest.

Next in importance are the Americana. At the head of the list stands the unique copy of Columbus's Letter in Spanish to Luis de Sant Angel, which I believe to be the earliest printed report of Columbus's first voyage. Then follow the two editions in Latin, one of which Harrisse claims to be the first of all the Latin editions, while Major makes the same claim for the other. With them is to be found also the equally rare edition in German. After these come the Voyages of Vespucius and of Cortes, the Works of Peter Martyr, the Voyages of Nunez Cabeça de Vaca, of Laudonnière, Jacques Cartier, Oviedo, Hakluyt, De Bry, Champlain, Garcilasso de la Vega, Captain John Smith and others. The rarest of the accounts of the settlements made in this country by the English and French during the seventeenth century are also to be found in the collection. The copy of Eliot's Indian Bible, which is usually classed under Americana, is next in interest, perhaps, to Gutenberg's great work.

Of the books printed in England, Caxton's edition of Higden's Polychronicon stands first. It came from a dealer who described it as the best of the six known perfect copies. Wynkyn de Worde is represented by the Vitas Patrum and The Seven Penitential Psalms. The rare and beautiful first English edition of The Ship of Fools is an example of Richard Pynson's skill, and Arnold's Chronicle of London, printed by Peter Treveris, compares favorably with it. Among the works of Shakespeare are to be found six of the Quarto editions, the four Folios, the Poems, and a copy of the Venus and Adonis of which only one other copy is known, and that, being in the British Museum, is beyond the reach of the collector. There are also First Editions of Shirley, Massinger, Peele, Daniel, Ben Jonson, Milton, Burns, Keats, and Shelley. The last named volume has a personal feature of the greatest interest, which is not mentioned in the Catalogue. It is a presentation copy from Shelley to Mary Wollstonecraft Godwin, and contains more than a page of her writing, in which she inscribes her admiration and love of Shelley.

Among the French books are included the illustrated works which were published in the latter part of the eighteenth century, and which are remarkable for grace of design and perfection of execution. When the drawings of Eisen, Moreau, Monnet, Denon, Lebarbier, and others, were skillfully engraved on copper, then printed on fine paper, and the whole bound with that taste for which the French binders are proverbial, the result was a book which for artistic beauty has never been excelled. It is not improper to say that I have exercised fastidious care in the selection of these volumes, and that they are in the finest possible condition.

The study of Early Printed Books took me naturally to Manuscripts, and while I have not made any efforts to collect a great number, I have tried to secure representative examples of the English, French, and Italian schools. The Pembroke

Book of Hours is not surpassed, probably, by any manuscript of English execution in any private collection in the world. The smaller manuscripts, while less important, are equally interesting as specimens of the skill of mediæval scribes and illuminators. It is instructive to compare the French examples with the Books of Hours printed at Paris about the beginning of the sixteenth century. In some cases, only a careful examination will enable one to detect the differences between the written and the printed volumes.

Mingled with the rarities above described will be found a goodly number of essays, histories, books of poetry, and works on political economy. Without laying claim to much knowledge I can say truthfully that my acquaintance with my books has not been confined to their exteriors or to their typographical peculiarities. They have comforted me after many a weary day, and have stood often in the place of friends. I can hope nothing better for them and for their future owners than that they may receive as watchful care and give as much pleasure as while in my possession.

"The very mention of ÆSOP darts a species of electricity through the limbs of an ardent Collector. He thinks how dearly he loved in his boyish days to read the supposed adventures, the wily tricks, and the arch sayings of all the Animals introduced into this instructive volume; and as his knowledge expands, and his taste becomes matured, he spares no trouble, nor sticks at any cost, to become the possessor of most of those impressions which are distinguished for rarity, or price, or curious and costly embellishments."—DIBDIN.

10 ALMANAC (FRENCH).—ALMANACH | DE | VERSAILLES, Année 1787.

One vol. 12°; bound in red morocco with a large cartouche tooled in the center of both sides. It contains the arms of France and of Austria, each on a shield, surrounded by a wreath and a royal crown above. The binding is a good and well preserved specimen of the French work of the last century. The book is in excellent condition and is enclosed in a morocco case.

This little volume will be esteemed chiefly because it came from the library of the unfortunate QUEEN MARIE ANTOINETTE and bears her arms. But it has a considerable intrinsic value, inasmuch as it gives minute descriptions of Versailles, Trianon, "Le Petit Trianon," etc., and lists of the names of the King's and Queen's attendants. It gives a vivid picture of the enormous expense necessary to carry on the royal household, and goes far to explain the restlessness of the French people under the taxation necessary to provide funds for such lavish expenditure.

11 AMBERLEY (VISCOUNT).—AN ANALYSIS of RELIGIOUS BELIEF. LONDON: Trübner & Co. 1876.

2 vols. 8°; cloth, UNCUT.

12 AMERICA: | OR | An exact Description | OF THE | WEST-INDIES: | More especially of those | Provinces which are under | the Dominion of the | King of Spain |

Bound in red morocco extra, gilt back, filleted sides, with corner ornaments, inside gilt border, and arms of* SIR M. M. SYKES stamped in gold on the sides.

ONLY ONE OTHER COPY is known of this exceedingly beautiful specimen of JOHN de COLONIA'S typography, and that is in the National Library in Paris.

The work terminates on the verso of fol. 249, middle of the page, with the following subscription:

Finiunt libri de animalibus Ariſtotelis interprete Theodoro Gaze. V. clariſſimo: quos Ludouicus podocatharus Cyprius ex Archetypo ipſius Theodori fideliter & diligēter auſcul tauit: & formulis imprimi curauit Venetiis per Iohannem de Colonia Sociūqȝ eius Iohannē māthen de Gherretzē. Anno domini. M.CCCC.LXXVI.

The recto of the last leaf, fol. 250, contains the register of the signatures, which begins thus:

Tabula cartarum ſecundum ordinem ponendarum

And concludes with the word:

Finis

THIS IDENTICAL COPY, which was formerly in the possession of SIR M. M. SYKES, is described by DIBDIN in the following ecstatic terms: "How can I omit to mention, with the distinction which it merits, the very beautiful, if not matchless, copy of THEODORE GAZA'S Latin version of "Aristotle upon Animals," of the date of 1476, in folio, UPON VELLUM, from the press of JOHN of COLOGNE—of which my friend SIR M. M. SYKES is the fortunate possessor! If my memory be not treacherous, this is the most exquisite specimen of an early Venetian vellum book that I have ever seen."

See DIBDIN, "Bibl. Decameron," Vol. I., pp. 402-3. PANZER, "Annales Typographici," Vol. III., p. 114. LAIRE, "Index Librorum ab Inventâ Typographiâ ad Annum 1500," Vol. I., p. 382. 22 ARITHMETIC.

Incommincia una practica molto bona et utile | a ciaschaduno chi vuole uxare larte de labbacho. TREVISO, 1478.

Sm. 4°.

"THE FIRST ARITHMETIC PUBLISHED, and apparently never seen by Dr. Peacock or by Professor De Morgan, who cites it only on the authority of writers on the subject who probably had merely heard of its existence. The only bibliographer who appears to have been personally acquainted with its existence was Federici, who describes the work in his 'Memorie Trevigiane' (p. 73) and ascribes it to the press of Michiele Manzolo, one of the earliest of Treviso printers. As, however, the copy mentioned by Federici has since been lost, stolen, or mislaid, subsequent bibliographers have doubted or denied its existence and considered his statement as a blunder, more especially as in spite of the most diligent search by Brunet and other philobiblists, no copy could be discovered in the Bibliothèque Nationale, British Museum, Bodleian, or any other library, public or private."

The condition of the volume is generally good, with wide margins and untrimmed edges. But on some of the pages are manuscript figures which indicate that the boy of four hundred years ago "wrestled" with the problems just as his successors have done. It is not possible, however, to get a better copy, as this is, so far as known, UNIQUE.

From the Wodhull Library.

Folio; printed in black letter, bound in olive crushed morocco by Coverley, gilt edges.

Although this book has neither title page, date, printer's name, nor place of publication, it is well known to be the second edition of Arnold's Chronicle printed by Peter Treveris about 1521. The first edition was printed in Antwerp in 1503.

This copy is perfect in every way. Both as a rare specimen of early printing and a chronicle of the old corporations of London and many curious customs of the City, the volume possesses unusual interest.

29 ARNOLD (THOMAS).—WORKS, comprising: I. History of Rome, 3 vols. II. History of the Later Roman Commonwealth, 2 vols. III. Sermons, 6 vols. IV. Life and Correspondence of Thomas Arnold, D. D., by Arthur Penrhyn Stanley, 2 vols., fine portrait. London: 1844–1857.

13 vols. 8°; bound in polished tree-calf super-extra, gilt backs, marbled edges, except "Life" by Stanley, 2 vols. 8°, cloth, uncut.

30 ARS MORIENDI.—(Editio Princeps, circa 1450.) A Reproduction of the Copy in the BRITISH MUSEUM, Edited by W. HARRY RYLANDS, F. S. A. With an Introduction by GEORGE BULLEN, F. S. A., &c., Keeper of the Printed Books in the British Museum. Printed for the Holbein Society. London: M.DCCC.LXXXI.

4°; cloth, uncut.

A beautiful reproduction of this unique BLOCK-BOOK, for which the trustees of the British Museum paid, at the Weigel Sale, at Leipsic, in 1872, the sum of £1,072 10*s.*, exclusive of commission, being the highest price ever paid by them for any single xylographic or printed work.

31 ARTHUR OF LITTLE BRITAIN.—The History of the Valiant Knight, ARTHUR OF LITTLE BRITAIN. A Romance of Chivalry. Originally Translated from the French by JOHN BOURCHIER, Lord Berners. DEO GRATIAS. GOD .AL.

FIRST EDITION, AND OF THE HIGHEST DEGREE OF RARITY. It begins with the TABLE, which occupies 12 leaves; then follows the TEXT on 257 leaves, ending on the recto, second column, of the last, with the words DEO GRATIAS. GOD .AL. Some copies are without these last two mysterious words, which are supposed to signify, "Godt allein die Ehre" (To God alone the Honor). There are neither numerals, signatures, catchwords, nor prefixes to the chapters. The first page is painted in FLOWER SCROLLS and illuminated, and the large INITIALS at the beginning of each book (22 in number) are finely painted and illuminated. The present is a fine, large copy, clean and sound, with rough edges, excepting the last two leaves, which have been repaired. Size 14⅞ x 11 inches.

Bound in old red morocco, double paneled sides, gilt borders, with corner ornaments.

 This edition was printed in the Monastery at Subiaco, and is the third known production of that Monastic Press. From the exact resemblance of its types to those of the edition of LACTANTIUS, executed two years before, in the same Monastery, and from both these works being expressly noticed by SWEYNHEYM and PANNARTZ among the earliest of their productions (in the list of works prefixed to their edition of DE LYRA'S Commentary printed in 1472), there is every probability to conclude that these artists were the printers of the present work. MEERMAN tells us "he turned over the leaves of this book, in the exquisite Library of the EARL of SUNDERLAND, in the year 1759," and agrees with MAITTAIRE in assigning it to the Sublacensian Press. ("Orig. Typog." Vol. II. pp. 245–6.) DIBDIN describes this splendid volume as being "one of those choice specimens of rare ancient printing which a tasteful collector rejoices to place in his library." ("Bibl. Spenceriana," Vol. I. p. 170.)

38 BACON (F.)—THE WORKS of FRANCIS BACON. . . Lord High Chancellor of England. Collected and Edited by JAMES SPEDDING, M. A., ROBERT LESLIE ELLIS, M. A., and DOUGLAS DENON HEATH. CAMBRIDGE: Printed at the Riverside Press, 1863.

15 vols. 8°; half blue morocco, tops gilt, front edges UNCUT, rubricated titles. Portraits on India Paper. LARGE PAPER: 100 copies only printed, and now scarce in this size.

An elegant example of American Typography. It is an accurate reprint of the best English edition, with additions and corrections by the chief editor, MR. JAMES SPEDDING. The size is more convenient, and the Index much more complete, than that of the London edition.

39 BACON.—PERSONAL HISTORY of LORD BACON. From unpublished Papers. By WILLIAM HEPWORTH DIXON. BOSTON: Ticknor & Fields, 1861.

M.CCCCC.II.

Sm. 4°; 24 unnumbered leaves, 33 lines to a full page, not including the running title; with 7 EXCEEDINGLY CURIOUS WOODCUTS, each occupying half a page, representing 7 boat-loads of "Female Fools." Bound in full russia extra, paneled and filleted sides, with large and small corner ornaments, gilt edges, by F. BEDFORD. A BEAUTIFUL COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION. EXTREMELY RARE.

A good account of this pungent satire on "Female Fools" is found in WRIGHT'S "History of Caricature and Grotesque," etc., Lond., 1864, pp. 223–4: "The first cut represents the ship carrying Eve alone of the female race, whose folly involved the whole world. The book is divided into five chapters, according to the number of the five senses, each sense represented by a boat carrying its particular class of foolish women to the great ship of foolish women, which lies off at anchor. The text consists of a dissertation on the use and abuse of the particular sense which forms the substance of the chapter, and it ends with Latin verses, which are given as the boatman's celeusma, or boat song."

41 BALL AND KENNEDY.—PEAKS, PASSES, AND GLACIERS. A Series of Excursions by Members of the Alpine Club. Edited by JOHN BALL and EDWARD SHIRLEY KENNEDY. LONDON: Longman, 1859–62.

3 vols. 8°; with MAPS, CHROMO-LITHOGRAPHIC PLATES, and numerous WOODCUTS; half maroon morocco, gilt backs and tops, UNCUT. SCARCE.

Large folio. Elegantly bound in heavy grosgr. crimson levant morocco super-extra, richly gilt back, filleted sides with corner ornaments, paneled inside with broad morocco borders, richly gilt and finely tooled, morocco joints, by WM. MATTHEWS. UNCUT EDGES. In a sliding case lined with chamois skin.

FIRST EDITION, printed in small Gothic characters in double columns, without marks of any kind. It contains 373 leaves, which number is correct according to PANZER, HAIN, and BRUNET; but DIBDIN makes the copy he describes in "Bibl. Spenceriana" to contain 375 leaves, evidently trusting to the pencil numbers to which he refers. The Capitals and Initials throughout the volume are painted in red and blue. This magnificent volume, which is attributed to the press of JOHN GUTENBERG, is regarded as the FOURTH BOOK PRINTED WITH A DATE; and its extraordinary rarity and value have been mentioned by most Bibliographers. Its importance is largely due to the fact that it is the FIRST LEXICON or dictionary ever published. The present copy is an exceedingly fine one; the leaves measure 16 x 11½ inches. It is sound and perfect in every leaf, and nearly as clean as if it had but just been issued from the press. The copy in Sir John Thorold's Library, with edges cut and gilt, sold in 1884 for £400.

The Gutenberg Bible.

THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED WITH TYPES.

THE BIBLE IN LATIN, WITH THE PROLOGUE OF SAINT JEROME. THE FIRST EDITION.

Gothic type: hundreds of illuminated capital letters, brilliantly colored and decorated, many of them heightened with gold. Two volumes folio.

MENTZ: Joannes Gutenberg. [1450–1455?]

In the original binding, thick oak boards covered with stamped calf, ornamented brass corners and center-pieces, with bosses; many leaves with uncut edges; measuring 11½ by 15⅞ inches on the leaf. Without title pages, pagination, or signatures; 641 leaves printed in double columns, 42 lines to a full column; the initials and rubrics in manuscript throughout. The first volume contains 324 leaves (of which one is in facsimile) and ends with the Psalms; the second has 317 leaves (sixteen in facsimile).

"The honor of producing the first and, as many think, the most perfect book, is now ascribed to Gutenberg alone, Fust not coming in for a share of the credit of the invention until after his famous lawsuit in 1455, when the Bible had been finished. We call it, therefore, the Gutenberg Bible, and have no sympathy for any French name given to it simply because a copy found in a Paris library had the honor of being described by a French bookseller."— H. STEVENS (in Caxton Celebration Catalogue).

It was known formerly as the "Mazarin Bible" from the fact that the earliest published description of it was based on a copy discovered by De Bure in the Mazarin Library.

While it is impossible to fix with accuracy the date of the appearance of this first printed book, it is generally believed to have been published between 1450 and 1455. That it was not later than 1456 is shown by a MS. note which is in the copy in the National Library in Paris which states that it was "illuminated, bound and completed on the day of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary [Aug. 15], 1456, by Henricus Albrech, alias Cremer," Vicar of the Collegiate Church of St. Stephen at Mayence.

Some copies, which may be called a SECOND ISSUE, have 40 lines on each of the first eight pages, 41 on the ninth, and the rest 42. In the later issue the three red lines at the beginning are in type, and not in manuscript as in the 42-line issue. In the first volume of this copy the beginning of the prologue to the Pentateuch (recto of 4th leaf), of the book of Genesis (recto of 5th leaf), and the title and finis (Incipit and Explicit) of each of the books, from Genesis to Ruth, inclusive, are rubricated in manuscript, not printed.

The Gutenberg Bible, as Dibdin remarks in his description of Earl Spencer's copy, has been "justly praised for the strength and beauty of the paper, the exactness of the register, the luster of the ink, and the general splendor and magnitude of the volumes." In Asher's announcement, in 1873, the present copy is claimed to be the most beautiful of all known copies on paper. "It is not only the tallest and almost uncut copy, but it is of remarkable freshness and purity, and though it has never been subjected to washing, is without the least stain. One sees by the costliness of its binding and by the beauty of its painted initials, heightened with gold and decorated in arabesques, that it was intended for the library of some prince or great nobleman. This exceptional excellence brought it ill-fortune, for some barbarian or crazed amateur has taken from it a few leaves, doubtless for the sake of their capital letters." By extraordinary good luck some ancient paper was found like that on which the Bible was printed, and the missing leaves were reproduced by photolithographic facsimile with such success that it is not easy to distinguish them. The copy is so nearly uncut that many of the manuscript cues for the rubricator are preserved at the extreme upper margins of the leaves.

On the outer margins can be seen also the holes made by the pins by which the sheets were fastened while going through the press. It is, in other words, just as it came from the press and the hands of the great Inventor of Printing, and, so far as known, is in this respect UNIQUE. The only other copy of this Bible in the United States is in the Lenox Library; that, however, is one of the "forty-line" edition above referred to, and generally regarded as later than this. A copy was sold in December, 1884, in London, for £3,900. It was much smaller than this copy, and was in modern binding.

The compiler of a catalogue should guard against eulogistic description, but it is difficult to restrain one's enthusiasm while contemplating these magnificent volumes. Gutenberg may have failed in his preliminary trials, but if so, he concealed the fact. So far as we know, he worked patiently until his standard was reached, and then gave to the world a work which as a first production must always be regarded as the most wonderful triumph of inventive genius known to history. Although nearly four and a half centuries have passed since its publication, this book still stands preëminent as a specimen of the printer's skill; and there is no reason to believe that the coming centuries will produce anything which will deprive it of the position it now holds.

BEDFORD.

This Translation of the Bible by John Eliot is scarcely inferior in interest to the noble work of Gutenberg above described. As an instance of learning, industry, piety and zeal it is unexcelled. The Old World was indebted to Gutenberg for its first printed Bible, and Eliot was the first to give it to the New World. Cotton Mather exclaimed, when he saw it, "Bchold, ye Americans, the greatest honour that ever you were partakers of! This . . . is the only Bible that ever was printed in all America, from the very foundation of the World." Mr. Eliot was the pastor of Roxbury, Mass., when he commenced, at the age of forty-two, the study of the Natick dialect, in which this work is printed. He began his task in 1650 and finished it after a labor of eight years. The printing of the Old Testament was commenced in 1660 and the work was completed in 1663. The printers required a week for each sheet, and there were about a hundred and fifty sheets. The names of the Books are retained as in the English versions, and such words as were unknown to the Indians are retained with an Indian termination, such as cherubim*lah*, etc. The longest word is, Mark i, 40: Wutteppesittukqussunnoowehtunkquoh, signifying "knecling down to him."

This is one of the copies having the DEDICATION TO KING CHARLES, of which, according to Thomas ("Hist. of Printing"), TWENTY COPIES ONLY were printed. It is absolutely perfect and in matchless condition. It is so nearly uncut that proof leaves are to be found at every few pages.

Sm. 8°; bound in olive levant morocco super-extra, gilt back and edges, paneled sides with corner ornaments.

This VERY RARE and interesting little volume consists of 63 leaves, the first of which is occupied by the title and the last two by the colophon and an engraving of the Virgin and Child; the remaining 60 bear on either side illustrations of the Old and New Testament, giving always two representations of the types to one of the fulfillment. At the top and bottom of the pages are descriptive sentences and quotations from the Prophets, engraved in block. An extraordinary degree of interest attaches to the volume, AS BEING THE ONLY BLOCK-BOOK PRINTED IN ITALY. DIDOT'S copy, sold at his sale in May, 1879, brought 1300 frs.

"Imitation de la BIBLE DES PAUVRES, et le seul livre xylographique Italien que l'on connaisse. Une jolie bordure d'entrelacs blancs sur fond noir décore la première page. Les planches sont au nombre de cent-vingt, plus une image de la Madone, assise sur un trône et couronnée par deux anges (au verso de l'avant-dernier feuillet). La gravure de ces planches est de GIOVANNI ANDREA VAVASSORE, dit Vadagnino, dont le nom figure dans la souscription finale: c'est sans doute l'artiste plus connu sous le nom de ZOAN ANDREA. Leur exécution ne peut pas être antérieure à 1510 ou 1512, attendu que la planche représentant Jésus chassant les vendeurs du Temple est une copie fidèle du même sujet de la Petite Passion de Jésus-Christ d'ALBERT DÜRER. CICOGNARA, qui le premier a décrit ce volume fort rare ("Catalogo," Tome I., No. 1992), nous dit que certaines planches semblent avoir été gravées d'après les dessins de BELLINI, de CARPACCIO, de SQUARCIONE et de MONTAGNA; celle de la Madone est très remarquable."—AMBROISE FIRMIN-DIDOT.

On the verso of the last leaf of the INDEX, which comprises 36 leaves, are two sets of verses, the last of which end as follows:

Se tibi cõmendat familiamqꝫ ſuam.

Venetiis impreſſum anno ſalutis M.CCCC.LXXII.
Nicolao Throno Duce foeliciſſimo Impe.

[Followed by (fol. 1*a*):]

Ioannis Boccacii de Certaldo: de montibus: ſyluis: fontibus: lacubus: | fluminibus: ſtagnis: seu paludib': de nomibus maris: liber īcipit feliciter. |

On the recto of the last leaf:

Io. Boccatii uiri clariſſimi de montibus: ſiluis: fontibus: lacubus: ſtagnis ſeu paludibus: & de diuerſis nomībus maris opus diligentiſſime īpreſſum finit. Venetiis Idus Iañ, cccc.lxxiii.

2 vols. in 1 vol. folio; plain calf.

FIRST EDITION. Elegantly printed in Roman letters, without numerals, catchwords or signatures. The "Genalogia" contains 294 leaves, 41 lines on a full page, and 2 blank leaves. The last two leaves of the INDEX have been misplaced by the binder between the Treatises "de Fluminibus" and "de Stagnis."

The "De Montibus," etc., comprise 75 leaves, 41 lines on a full page. The millenary letter "M" is omitted by mistake from the date.

83 Boccacius (Johannes) De mulieribus clariſſimis.

IN FINE [verso fol. cxvj.]:

Liber Johānis boccacij de certaldo ml'ribus claris ſūma cum diligentia amplius ſolito correctus, ac per Johānem czeiner de Reutlingen, vlme impreſſus finit Feliciter, Anno dñi M°cccc°lxxiij.

Folio; 2 unnumbered prel. leaves, containing the Table of Chapters; TEXT, 116 numbered leaves; 33 lines on a full page, and 81 exceedingly curious and diverting WOODCUTS, one of which is dated 1473. This copy is perfect and has all the cuts, including that which is usually missing, representing the sudden accouchement of "PAPESS JOANNA" in the street, which DIBDIN has reproduced in the "Bibl. Spenceriana," Vol. IV., p. 586. It has unusually wide margins and is handsomely bound in russia by ROGER PAYNE, gilt back, untrimmed edges.

FIRST EDITION. "It is not without good reason that LAIRE pronounces this impression to be 'Editio originalis et rarissima.' It has, however, other pretensions to be noticed and treasured by the curious; since it not only presents us with a specimen of a type—rarely used by JOHN ZEINER—and one of the earliest books printed at Ulm, but it contains some of the most curious and diverting woodcuts in the earlier annals of the arts of printing and engraving. There are also very few books, of the same date, which display equal spirit of execution, and if the printer had shewn the skill of modern typographers in working the blocks, very little would have been wanting to render this a brilliant, as well as an interesting, production of early art."—DIBDIN. ("Bibl. Spenceriana," Vol. IV., p. 580 et seq.)

When perfect it is one of the rarest of the editions of Boccaccio. This is believed to be the only perfect copy in the United States.

84 BOCCACIUS (J.)—DE MULIERIBUS CLARISSIMIS. ULMÆ: J. Czeiner de Reutlingen, 1473.

Folio; old calf.

Another copy, in good condition, and similar to the foregoing, except that it lacks three leaves, including that representing the accouchement of "PAPESS JOANNA."

2 vols. sm. 8°; Vol. I., 12 prel. leaves, pp. 366; Vol. II., pp. 427; Table, 7 leaves. Bound in highly polished crimson levant morocco super-extra, gilt backs and edges, filleted sides, inside gilt borders, by F. BEDFORD. BEAUTIFUL COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION, containing the PLATES of ROMAIN DE HOOGE.

86 BOCCACCIO.—LE | DECAMERON | DE JEAN | BOCCACE.—LONDRES: | (PARIS) 1757.

[Engraved title by Gravelot.]

5 vols. 8°; bound in full red crushed morocco by DAVID, fillets on sides, and broad inside border, gilt edges.

These volumes are beautifully illustrated by Gravelot, Eisen, and Boucher. The head bands and tail-pieces are especially charming. The portrait of Boccaccio by Gravelot faces the engraved title of the first volume. It is the most attractive and popular edition of Boccaccio's Tales which has been published in modern times. This copy is in especially fine condition, being clean and having unusually wide margins.

87 BOCCACE.—CONTES DE BOCCACE (LE DÉCAMÉRON) Traduits de l'Italien et précédes d'une Notice Historique par A. BARBIER. Vignettes par MM. Tony Johannot, H. Baron, Eug. Laville, Célestin Nanteuil, Grandville, Geoffroi, etc. PARIS: Barbier, 1846.

BLACK LETTER. This handsome volume is commonly known as QUEEN ELIZABETH'S PRAYER-BOOK, in consequence of the large woodcut portrait of the Queen, on the reverse of the title, in the attitude of prayer. The work is elegantly printed within ornamental woodcut borders, in imitation of the French "Books of Hours," and is remarkable as being the only English book of the kind. The borders contain scenes from the Old and New Testament, the Apocalypse, illustrations of the Cardinal Virtues, and the Dance of Death, which last contains specimens of the costumes of all ranks in the time of ELIZABETH and JAMES I. The authorship of the work is by some attributed to JOHN FOXE, and by others to RICHARD DAY.

Roy. Folio; bound in highly polished brown levant morocco super-extra, gilt back, paneled and filleted sides with elegant corner ornaments, insides lined with vellum, surrounded by broad morocco borders, richly gilt and finely tooled, double vellum fly-leaves, morocco joints, by Wm. Matthews. UNCUT, in a sliding case. First Edition. PRINTED ON VELLUM in Gothic Letter, double columns, with the commentary surrounding the text. The commentary is printed in the smallest, and the text in the largest, type used by Fust and Schœffer. The work contains 141 leaves. The initial at the beginning of the text is a Miniature of Boniface, painted and illuminated in gold; and all the capitals are painted in blue and red. A few leaves are slightly stained.

In this copy there are 4 preliminary leaves upon genealogical subjects, by Johannes de Deo Hispanus; a space being left for the introduction of the genealogical tree by the rubricator. The Text begins on the recto of the first leaf, surrounded by commentary, and the first two lines are printed in red, as follow:

This copy contains a fine impression of the original engraving of CAPT. JOHN SMITH from the map in his "History of Virginia," London, 1627, and a COLORED photograph of L. H. Giradin, who assisted in the completion of the work. An account of the duel in which BURK lost his life, in the handwriting of Mr. E. D. INGRAHAM, is also inserted.

124 BURNS, ROBERT.

POEMS,

CHIEFLY IN THE

SCOTTISH DIALECT,

BY

ROBERT BURNS.

THE Simple Bard, unbroke by rules of Art,
He pours the wild effusions of the heart:
And if inspir'd, 'tis Nature's pow'rs inspire;
Hers all the melting thrill, and hers the kindling fire.

ANONYMOUS.

KILMARNOCK:
PRINTED BY JOHN WILSON.

M.DCC.LXXXVI.

8 vo; bound in dark blue levant morocco extra, tooled sides, gilt edges, in the style of Roger Payne, by F. BEDFORD.

An unusually tall and beautiful copy of the FIRST EDITION. Its rarity is very great, and the demand seems to be ever increasing. Mr. Gibson Craig's copy sold in March, 1888, for £111.

125 BURNS (ROBERT).—POEMS, | CHIEFLY IN THE | SCOTTISH DIALECT. | BY ROBERT BURNS. | TO WHICH ARE ADDED, | SCOTS POEMS, | SELECTED FROM THE WORKS OF | ROBERT FERGUSON. | NEW-YORK: | Printed by J. and A. M'Lean, Franklin's Head, | No. 41, Hanover-Square. | M.DCC.LXXXVIII.

Sm. 8°. 4 prel. leaves, comprising TITLE, "Dedication, To the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the Caledonian Hunt," dated "Edinburgh, April 4th, 1787," and table of "Contents," forming viii pages; TEXT, "Poems chiefly Scottish," pp. 9 to 248, inclusive; "Scots Poems, selected from the works of Robert Ferguson," pp. 249 to 284, inclusive; "Glossary," pp. 285–306.

Sumptuously bound in highly polished grass-green levant morocco super-extra, gilt back, elaborately and delicately tooled, and ornamented with bunches of Scotch thistles, filleted sides with elegant corner ornaments, finely gilt, gilt edges, by F. BEDFORD, in his best style. With oval PORTRAIT OF BURNS, engraved by "SCOT [sic] Philad[a]." A LARGE AND BEAUTIFUL COPY OF THIS EXCESSIVELY RARE VOLUME.

This copy is from the Menzies Collection. In that Catalogue the well-known bookseller, Wm. Gowans, is quoted as saying: "The New-York Edition of Robert Burns, 1788, may so far be pronounced UNIQUE. No copy, with the exception of the one named [the present], has been seen by the most sharp hawk-eyed book hunter, or the keenest bibliographer, nor by any of the living generation so far as known."

126 BURNS.—POEMS | CHIEFLY IN THE | SCOTTISH DIALECT. BY | ROBERT BURNS. | PHILADELPHIA | PRINTED FOR, AND SOLD BY PETER STEWART AND | GEORGE HYDE, THE WEST SIDE OF SECOND STREET | THE NINTH DOOR ABOVE CHESTNUT STREET. | M.DCC.LXXXVIII.

12°; pp. 304. Bound in crushed olive morocco, with broad dentelle border, elaborately tooled, by LORTIC FRÈRES. An exceptionally beautiful specimen of their skill.

It is doubtful whether this or the New York Edition of the same date is the First American Edition of Burns's Poems. Probably they appeared at about the same time. Both are exceedingly rare, far more so than the Kilmarnock Edition.

127 BURNS (ROBERT).—AN ADDRESS to the DEIL. With Explanatory Notes. Illustrated by seven Engravings on Wood, by THOMSON, BONNER, SLADER, WILLIAMS, and NESBIT, from designs by T. LANDSEER. LONDON: William Kidd, 1830.

Sm. 4°. Bound by Pratt in crimson crushed morocco, without tooling on the outside but with "doublé" in dark blue morocco, studded with single ornaments. Title surrounded by a border.

JACQUES CARTIER was the discoverer of the mainland of Canada. He made his first voyage up the Gulf of St. Lawrence in the summer of 1534, and in the following year ascended the river as far as the present site of Montreal. A third voyage was made in 1540. Few histories of early voyages are as rare as those of CARTIER'S. The original account of the first voyage is lost, and the earliest version of it is preserved only in the Collection of Ramusio. From this, the present translation was made, which in turn was translated into French and printed at Rouen in 1598. Of the account of the second voyage but one copy is known, and that is in the British Museum. Of the third voyage no copy of the original French edition is known, but it appears in fragmentary form in the collections of Hakluyt and Purchas. This English translation of the second voyage is so rare that it was unknown to Herbert, and is not mentioned by Brunet or Graesse. In addition to its rarity it has great intrinsic worth and must therefore always be regarded as one of the gems in a collection of Americana. The present copy is the only one which has been offered at public sale in this country, and but two others are known here. This is perfect and in excellent condition.

TOGETHER, 5 vols. Elegantly and uniformly bound in bright crimson levant morocco, highly polished, blind tooled backs and sides, gilt edges, broad inside dentelle borders, most delicately gilt and finely worked after a very beautiful pattern, by LORTIC.

No feature of the American portion of this collection is more remarkable and rare than this series of Champlain's voyages. A similar set has not been offered at public or private sale in this country or in Europe in the present generation. The collector is fortunate if he secures any one of these volumes in good condition, and the possession of all together may well reward the search of a lifetime.

Sm. 4°. Gothic Letter. 10 leaves, 33 lines on a full page; without signatures, catch-words, and pagination. Bound in brown morocco super-extra, filleted sides with corner ornaments, broad inside gold borders, gilt edges, by C. Lewis.

This is one of the most valuable books, from a bibliographical point of view, in the present collection. It is of the highest degree of rarity. Lord Spencer's copy and this are supposed to be the only copies in existence. It is also the FIRST WORK ISSUED BY Ulric Zel WITH A DATE, and settles with complete certainty the fact that he exercised the art of printing at Cologne as early as the year 1466. The type appears to be new; the ink jet black; and the whole has a freshness and perfection of press-work about it which Dibdin says "he does not remember to have seen in any other production of the press of Ulric Zel." See Panzer, "Annales Typographici," Vol. IV., p. 271. Hain, "Repertorium Bibliographicum," Vol. I., Pars II., p. 110. Santander, "*Dict. Bibliogr. Sm. folio. Bound in red morocco, with elaborately gilt sides, and printed on vellum.

First Edition, and of very great rarity. It is in Gothic Letter, without marks, having 28 lines to a full page. It contains 88 leaves and 4 blank leaves ruled. It is, as is well known, the FIRST CLASSIC PRINTED, and one of the first two printed books in which printed Greek characters appear. The present copy is one of those which have not the shields beneath the lines of Horace; but it answers in every other respect to the description given by Dibdin in "Bib. Spenc." The large initials are ornamented, and the capitals are painted in blue and red; and there are running titles written in red at the top of each page. The size of this copy is 10¼ x 6⅞ in. There are no other known copies of this edition printed on vellum in this country.

175 CICERO.— De Oratore et de Claris Oratoribus.

Colophon:

.M. T. Ciceronis in Brutum explicit liber. Anno xp̄i. M. CCCC. lxix. die vero. xii mensis Ianuaru. Rome in domo magnifici viri Petri de Maximo.

Quarto, printed by Sweynheym and Pannartz. Bound in red morocco, gilt edges.

The first page is surrounded with a border illuminated by hand and containing a large initial letter and the coat of arms of a former, and probably the original, owner. The text is ruled throughout with red lines. This copy is from the Wodhull Library. It contains a memorandum stating that he paid £25 for it in 1803. There is also a letter to Mr. Wodhull from "de Bure, père et fils," assuring him that this copy conforms in every respect with that in the Bibliothèque Nationale at Paris.

176 CICERONIS (M. T.) — EPISTOLÆ ad FAMILIARES.

Venetiis, Iohannes de Spira, 1469.

Folio; 125 unnumbered leaves, besides 2 blank leaves; 40 and 41 lines on a full page. The first page and the large Initials throughout the volume are richly painted and illuminated. The small initials are in red and blue. The headings of the Epistles are written in red. A few leaves are slightly stained, and the front margins of the first five and the last three leaves have been neatly repaired.

THIS COPY IS BEAUTIFULLY PRINTED UPON FINE VELLUM, of which, BRUNET says, "NO MORE THAN SIX COPIES ARE EXTANT." PANZER has proved beyond all question that it is THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED AT VENICE, and the FIRST WORK bearing the name of JOHN DE SPIRA as printer. The COLOPHON, which is on the verso of the last leaf, is as follows:

Bound in fine old crimson morocco, gilt back and edges, paneled sides with corner ornaments.

A large, clean, and truly sumptuous copy of the SECOND EDITION of the FAMILIAR EPISTLES OF CICERO printed by JOHN de SPIRA; the third and last work ever executed by him. It appears from the Colophon that he printed only three hundred copies of each edition of the EPISTLES; and this second edition is considered to be of equal rarity, if not rarer even than the first.

This copy belonged to the Duke of Grafton in 1796 and passed at the sale of his books to the Syston Park Library. It is in every way a beautiful volume. The binding is in excellent preservation, and the condition of the book itself is all that could be desired. The first page has been illuminated by the hand of an Italian artist. It is surrounded by a brilliant border of arabesque pattern, in which is a medallion containing a wonderfully executed head of Cicero. The large initial letter "N" is in red and blue and gold. The paper, with wide margins, the ink, and the general typographical excellence of the work justify the care which has been bestowed on the binding and ornamentation by its former illustrious owners.

This copy is described by MEERMAN in his "Origines Typog." (Vol. I., p. 58, note i.,) to whom it was shown in 1759, and who also gives a facsimile of the type. TRANSLATION:

SIR, As I know you will be rejoiced at the glorious success that our Lord has given me in my voyage, I write this to tell you how in thirty-three days I sailed to the Indies with the fleet that the Illustrious King and Queen, our Sovereigns, gave me, where I discovered a great many islands inhabited by innumerable people; and of all I have taken possession for their Highnesses by proclamation and display of the Royal Standard, without opposition.

4°; bound in old silk, four unnumbered leaves, 32 lines to a full page, printed throughout in GOTHIC LETTER.

Although this letter contains much the same matter as that addressed to Sanchez, they are really two entirely distinct documents, of which the present appears to have been written first. Sant Angel was the personal friend of Columbus through whose influence the Queen was induced to promote his expedition, after she had declined to grant any assistance. It was not unnatural, therefore, that Columbus should have sent this personal letter to his friend before making his official report to the Royal Treasurer. This letter, in connection with the following addressed to Sanchez, is of the greatest interest and importance as giving the earliest surviving description of the New World. These three little volumes, containing the first accounts written by the great navigator himself, form, when considered together, a collection of bibliographical treasures which no library in the world can rival. Until about twenty-five years ago it was supposed that no copy of Columbus's Letter in Spanish was to be found. Then, however, a copy was discovered in the Ambrosian Library at Milan. The present volume was found in the possession of an Italian family only two years ago. It is very much like the Ambrosian copy, but the typographical differences are such as to prove that they are separate and different editions. Several eminent authorities in England and America have expressed the opinion, based upon the correction of errors and other internal evidence, that this is the Editio Princeps, and that the Ambrosian was copied from it. About the time of the discovery of this copy, another, in Spanish, in folio form, was offered for sale by a dealer in Paris for about $13,000. Such an eminent authority as Mr. Harrisse did not hesitate to assert that it was not a genuine early edition; but a London bookseller has recently obtained possession of this latter copy, and advertises it at about two-thirds of the former owner's price, or $8000, as being the only and original edition. He seems to be quite confident both as to the time and place when and where it was printed. Inasmuch as it bears no mark of date or place or printer's name, it is unnecessary to say that positive assertions as to these points cannot be sustained by proof. It is claimed that the folio form was the original, as being the usual form of the "broadsides" of the time. But it is indisputable that all of the editions of the earliest voyages hitherto known are in quarto form. This is true not only of all the Latin and Spanish editions of Columbus's Letter, but of Vespucius's Voyages, of Pomponius Mela, of The Cosmographiæ Introductio, of Varthema, and others. Now as the "broadside" or folio form is more easily published, being folded but once, it is natural to suppose that, if this were the original form, those printers who wished to reproduce the Letter in a popular edition would have repeated it. Furthermore, it is almost certain that some one of the eight Latin and Spanish early editions already known would have imitated the folio had that been the original form. But as a matter of fact they are all quartos. On the other hand, it would be quite natural for a printer who wished to reproduce a popular tract to take the easiest and cheapest style, and so he would print the four small leaves on two larger ones, folded once. These considerations seem to be natural and logical, but it is not claimed that they are conclusive. From the very nature of things the facts must always remain matters of conjecture, and dogmatic statements are unjustifiable. Both the folio and the quarto were offered to the owner of the latter at about the same price, and the present copy was bought, after a careful investigation of the merits of both, in the belief that it was the earlier edition and more desirable in every respect. Nothing has since come to light to change that belief. The weight of evidence indicates that it is a UNIQUE AND GENUINE COPY OF THE ABSOLUTELY EARLIEST REPORT OF COLUMBUS'S GREAT DISCOVERY.

The volume is perfect, and its condition is all that could be demanded.

Letter from Christopher Colom: to whom our age oweth much: concerning the Islands of India beyond the Ganges recently discovered. In the search of which he was sent under the auspices and at the expense of the most invincible Sovereigns of Spain, Ferdinand and Isabella: addressed to the most noble lord Gabriel Sanchis, Treasurer of the same most serene monarchs: which the noble and learned man Leander de Cosco translated from the Spanish idiom into Latin, the third day of the calends of May, 1493. The year One of the Pontificate of Alexander VI.

Without place, date, or printer's name, but according to MAJOR printed by Stephen Plannck at ROME, in 1493. No two authorities agree as to the priority of date of the early editions of Columbus's Letter in Latin. Mr. R. H. MAJOR, of the British Museum, is the most recent bibliographer who has tried to solve the mystery, and his arguments are so logical and weighty that it seems impossible to controvert them. Mr. JOHN RUSSELL BARTLETT, himself a high authority, agrees with Mr. MAJOR, and places this edition first in his catalogue of the JOHN CARTER BROWN Library. The reasons which influenced his action have caused the compiler of this catalogue to follow his example.

The present is a most beautiful copy in every respect. It is from the Barlow Library.

HARRISSE, who, previous to MAJOR, had written the most fully concerning the Letters of Columbus, places this edition first. ("Bibliotheca Americana Vetustissima," New York, 1866.) It was placed first, also, in the catalogue of the Barlow Library, at the sale of which it fetched $2900. It is exceedingly rare. Mr. Bartlett states that but four other copies of this edition are known. The present copy is perfect and in brilliant condition, excepting that a name has been written in ink on the margin of the first page.

Sm. 4°; bound in dark brown polished calf, sides covered with blind tooling.

This is the FIRST GERMAN EDITION of Columbus's first Letter. The present copy has, unfortunately, three leaves in facsimile, but the volume is so exceedingly rare that the owner has never had an opportunity to buy another copy, either at public or private sale, and thought himself very fortunate to obtain this.

Black Letter. Sm. 8°; 10 leaves of 27 lines to a full page, and 4 woodcuts. Half dark blue morocco, top gilt, uncut, by Thivet.

One of twenty copies only, reproduced in Paris by Pilinski's process, about 1858. Shortly after it was issued it was discovered that the facsimile had been made from an imperfect copy, and wanted the first and last leaves. In this copy they are reproduced from the only known perfect copy of the original edition, now in the Lenox Library, New-York.

201 COLUMBUS.— Letter of Columbus to Luis de Santangel, 1493. [New York: 1864.]

Title, facsimile, 1 p., pp. 12, 8*vo, half morocco, gilt top,* uncut.

A facsimile of the Spanish letter of Columbus, published in 1493, from the only known copy in the Ambrosian Library, Milan, with a literary and bibliographical description by Mr. James Lenox. A few copies only printed for presentation.

202 COLUMBUS.— Lettera in Lingua Spagnuola diretta da Christoforo Colombo a Luis de Sant Angel (15 Febbrajo 14 Marzo 1493). 4*to; cloth.*

This facsimile, by the Marquis D'Adda, of the famous Letter in Spanish which belongs to the Ambrosian Library of Milan, and which was long supposed to be the only existing edition in Spanish, is especially interesting in connection with the original Letter in Spanish above described.

203 COLUMBUS.— The Letter in Spanish of Christopher Columbus written on his Return from his First Voyage, and addressed to Luis de Sant Angel, 15 Feb.–14 March, 1493, announcing the Discovery of the New World. Reproduced in Fac-simile from a Unique Copy in the possession of Mr. Brayton Ives of New York, with Introductory and Critical Remarks, accompanied by a Revised Spanish Version, and a literal translation into English. London: Ellis & Elvey, 29 New Bond Street, W. 1889.

A VOYAGE to the PACIFIC OCEAN in the Years 1776, 1777, 1778, 1779, and 1780. Vols. I. & II. written by CAPT. JAMES COOK; Vol. III. by CAPT. JAMES KING. Lond. 1785. 4°; 3 vols. Accompanied with a folio volume of 87 Maps, Charts, Portraits, Views, &c. LONDON: 1773–1785.

8 vols. 4° and 1 vol. fol.; half purple morocco, gilt backs, marbled edges.

Now that the "Dark Continent" has been opened to the civilized world there seems to be but little work remaining for discoverers. But so long as the love of adventure exists, the narratives of the bold explorers who crossed unknown seas and penetrated strange countries will never fail to command attention. As a record of the thrilling experiences of CAPT. COOK, the first navigator to make a complete circuit of the world, these volumes must occupy an honorable and important place in every library. The present set is exceptionally fine.

211 COOKE (SAMUEL).— Neceſſarius. | The Continuance of an able and Godly | Miniſter very needful to a People. | A | SERMON | Preached at the Funeral of the Reve- | rend Mr. JOHN DAVENPORT, | late Paſtor of the Church in Stam- | ford; who died Fryday, Febr. 5, 1730–1, in the 62 Year of his Age, | and 36 of his Miniſtry: And was, | decently interred on Munday folow- | ing. | By the Rev. THE LETTERS OF FERNANDO CORTES.

Mr. TICKNOR, in speaking of the adventurers who after COLUMBUS wrote narratives of their discoveries, says: "In the foreground of this picturesque group stands, as the most brilliant of its figures, FERNANDO CORTES. . . . Of his works, the most remarkable were, no doubt, five long and detailed reports to the Emperor on the affairs of MEXICO, the first of which, and probably the most curious, dated in 1519, seems to be lost, and the last, belonging probably to 1527, exists only in manuscript."

The FIRST EDITIONS of the three known printed editions are hereinafter described. Their rarity is such that there has been but one opportunity to buy them at public sale in a generation. With the exception of the last leaf in the First Edition of the Third Letter, which is one of Pilinski's facsimiles, so wonderfully executed that it escaped the notice of the author of Mr. Barlow's Catalogue until after the completion of his work, the volumes are perfect and in exceptionally fine condition.

They are from the Barlow Collection.

TRANSLATION:

"Letter of relation sent to His Sacred Majesty, the Emperor, our Lord, by the Captain General of New Spain, called Fernando Cortes, in which is an account of the lands and provinces without number which have been newly discovered in Yucatan, from the year XIX to the present; and which he subjected to the Royal Crown of His Sacred Majesty. In particular is an account of a very great province, very rich, called Culua; and of grand cities and marvelous edifices; and of great trade and riches, among which is one more wonderful and rich than the rest, called Timixtitan, which with wonderful skill is built upon a great lake, of which city and province a great lord, called Montezuma, is king; where there happened to the Captain and Spaniards things wonderful to hear. With a full account of the great estate of the said Montezuma, of his rites and ceremonies, and how he is waited upon.

"The present letter was printed in the very noble and very loyal city of Seville by Jacob Cromberger, a German, on the 8th day of November, 1522."

246 DE BRY (THEODOR).

THE GREAT AND SMALL VOYAGES.

THEODOR DE BRY commenced in 1590 the most costly and extensive series of Voyages ever undertaken. His plan contemplated originally the publication of them in English, French, German, and Latin. But after the first volume had been issued the plan was modified, and the subsequent volumes were published only in Latin and German. After his death the work was continued by his widow, his sons, and others. Seventeen years intervened between the publication of Parts IX and X of the Great Voyages, and the work was not completed until 1634. In this period of forty-four years it was inevitable that with the changes of partners and variations of plans there should be more or less confusion of editions. And as a matter of fact a collector cannot set for himself a greater task than to gather a complete set of DE BRY. Probably that goal has never yet been reached, although a few have nearly attained it. The present set is the best that the owner has been able to buy in twenty years of collecting. A most careful collation justifies the statement that all the Parts are the FIRST EDITIONS in Latin, and that they are perfect. But the impropriety of speaking too positively on this point may be realized when such a high authority as SOBOLEWSKI says (BRUNET, Vol. II. at the end) he is "convinced that the two impressions of the first edition are always found mingled, and that it is impossible to decide the question of priority." The set includes many additions and variations as hereinafter described; also the General Title and the rare Elenchus. Its condition is excellent, and it forms a fitting supplement to the Voyages of Columbus, Vespucius, Cortes, and Champlain, described elsewhere in this Catalogue.

This French version of the first part of the GRANDS VOYAGES of De Bry is the only part which was published in French and English. It is of the greatest possible rarity in both languages. But one copy of the original English Edition has been sold publicly in this country for a score of years, and there has been no public sale of a perfect copy of this French translation in that time. This copy is not only perfect, but it is in the most brilliant condition throughout.

Folio; bound in calf, with gilt edges. ORIGINAL EDITION.

This copy contains all the plates, explanations, titles, and indexes of the original edition, including the map; all in fine condition. The only changes to be noticed are that, while the plate of Adam and Eve with the words Theodore de Bry fe at the bottom of it is usually to be found after the Index Omnium Capitum, in the present copy it fronts the title-page. The Beneuolo Lectoris, which generally follows the Adam and Eve engraving, is found here after the XXIII. illustration. The other parts are all in the regular order, and the map and plates are fine impressions.

249 DEFOE (DANIEL).—THE HISTORY of the DEVIL, ANCIENT and MODERN. IN TWO PARTS. PART FIRST, containing a State of the Devil's Circumstances, from his Expulsion out of Heaven to the Creation; . . . PART SECOND, containing his more Private Conduct down to the Present Times. Sm. 4°; Title, and 15 unnumbered pages. Elegantly bound in bright crimson levant morocco super-extra, gilt back and edges, paneled sides, gilt, with corner ornaments, inside gilt dentelle borders, by F. BEDFORD. EXCEEDINGLY RARE.

254 DEMOSTHENES.—DEMOSTHENIS ORATIONES DUÆ & SEXAGINTA. Libanii sophistæ in eas ipsas orationes argumenta. Vita Demosthenis per Libanium Eiusdem uita per Plutarchum. [Græce.] VENETIIS in ædib. Aldi. mense Novem. 1504.

Both parts in 1 vol. folio, fine old green smooth morocco, gilt edges.

A fine copy of this very scarce volume. Two editions—the EDITIONES PRINCIPES of Demosthenes—were printed by Aldus under the same (the above) date, and with same number of pages. The above is the edition which has the Aldine anchor on title-page between the word Al dus, and which offers the better text and is the more correctly printed. This copy has the blank leaf at end.

255 DEMOUSTIER (CHARLES ALBERT).— LETTRES | A EMILIE | sur | LA MYTHOLOGIE | par | C. A. DEMOUSTIER. | [Renouard's device.] | A PARIS, | Chez Ant. Aug. Renouard, | M. DCCCIX.

Two vols. 8°; bound by CUZIN in full crimson crushed morocco, fillets on sides, and rich dentelle border inside, gilt edges.

A rare edition. These volumes are remarkable for their excellent condition and for having full sets of the plates by MOREAU LE JEUNE, both before and after the letter. The impressions of the plates are uniformly brilliant. The Pajou portrait of Demoustier faces the title.

256 DEMOUSTIER (C. A.) — LETTRES À ÉMILIE SUR LA MYTHOLOGIE. PARIS: Chez Ant. Aug. Renouard, 1812.

This volume will always command a place in the very front rank of Americana as the FIRST ACCOUNT OF NEW YORK PRINTED IN ENGLISH. It contains much interesting information told in quaint fashion. In giving an account of the fruits natural to the Island the author mentions "Mulberries, Posimons, Grapes great and small, Huckelberries, Cramberries, Plums of several sorts, Rosberries and Strawberries, of which last is such abundance in June that the Fields and Woods are died red: Which the Countrey-People perceiving, instantly arm themselves with bottles of Wine, Cream and Sugar, and instead of a Coat of Male, every one takes a Female upon his Horse behind him, and so rushing violently into the fields, never leave till they have disrob'd them of their red colours, and turned them into the old habit."

As a bibliographical rarity this copy is, in one respect, almost unique: It is believed to be the only one in this country which has the printed date. The title-page was printed on such a large scale that the date at the bottom of it was uniformly cut off by the binder. The date was so rare that GOWANS, the veteran collector and dealer, had not seen a copy with it, and omitted it in his reprint of the book. The present copy is perfect and all that could be desired in every respect. It has very wide margins and is unusually clean throughout.

"Old Plays will always be read by the curious, if it were only to discover the manners and behaviour of several ages and how they altered. For plays are exactly like portraits, drawn in the garb and fashion of the time when painted. You see one habit in the time of Charles I.; another quite different from that, both for men and women, in Queen Elizabeth's time; another under Henry the Eighth different from both, and so backward all various. And in the several fashions of behaviour and conversation there is as much mutability as in that of clothes."—[Wright's] Historia Histrionica, Lond., 1699.

This magnificent work describes the BIRDS which are not included in the works of AUDUBON or WILSON.

303 ELLIOT (D. G.).—A MONOGRAPH of the PHASIANIDÆ, or FAMILY of the PHEASANTS. NEW-YORK: Published by the Author, 1872.

2 vols. imp. folio; with 58 COLORED PLATES. Half crimson levant morocco, gilt backs and edges.

304 ELLIOT (D. G.)—A MONOGRAPH of the PARADISEIDÆ, or, BIRDS OF PARADISE. By DANIEL GIRAUD ELLIOT. s. l. Printed for the Subscribers by the Author, 1873.

Imp. folio; with 37 COLORED PLATES. Half brown morocco, gilt back and edges.

The foregoing seven volumes form a set of Elliot's works which is as rare as it is beautiful and instructive. In connection with Audubon they present an account of American birds so complete as almost to render superfluous further works of a similar character. The drawing and coloring of the birds is exquisitely true to life, and the letterpress shows a wide and accurate knowledge of the subject.

305 ELZEVIR—TACITUS (CAIUS CORNELIUS).—C. Corn. | Tacitvs | ex | I. Lipsii | editione | cum | Not. et Emend | H. Grotii | [At bottom of page] Lvgdvni Batavorvm, | ex officina Elzeviriana, Anno 1640.

[Engraved title.]

One vol. 12°; bound in vellum, tastefully tooled in gold, gilt edges.

This edition is often found bound in two volumes. The notes by H. Grotius at the end add much to its importance. Both the table, "Stemma Augustæ domus" (facing page 400), and the printed list of the consuls are perfect. The two are seldom found, and add to the interest and value of the volume.

306 ELZEVIR—CHARRON (PIERRE).—de la | SAGESSE, | trois Livres | par | Pierre Charron. | A Leide, chez Iean Elsevier, 1656.

solertissimus. venetiis impressit. Anno salutis M.cccc.lxxxii. Octavis Caleñ. |
Juñ. Lector. Vale.

Folio; bound in red morocco, gilt edges, by DÉROME.

The FIRST EDITION of this world-renowned book, and in a form befitting its value and reputation. To those who have struggled over the cheap and bleared copies which modern presses turn out for the use of schools and colleges, this work, with its broad margins, brilliant black ink, exquisitely engraved initials, and clearly cut diagrams, must come as a revelation of beauty. And even from bibliographers few books have won more enthusiastic praise than Ratdolt's Euclid. It is the first book in which mathematical diagrams appeared. This copy belonged to the Duc de la Valière, and was bought in 1784 by M. Wodhull, who states in a note that the mending of the first two leaves was done by ROGER PAYNE.

312 EURIPIDES.— ΕΥΡΙΠΙΔΟΥ ΜΗΔΕΙΑ.

Sm. 4to; bound in old English red morocco, with borders of gold, gilt edges.

FIRST EDITION. Printed in Greek capital letters. It contains the Medea, Hippolytus, Alcestis, and Andromache. The text stands high in the estimation of scholars. This is a beautiful copy. It has the signatures of two former owners — Dr. ASKEW and M. WODHULL. The latter bought it in 1775 and paid for it then £11 5*s*. Renouard's copy sold for £36 15*s*. Neither the date nor place of printing is given, but it is universally admitted to have been printed by L. de Alopa, at Florence, about 1496. It is EXCESSIVELY RARE.

313 EURIPIDES.— ΕΥΡΙΠΙΔΟΥ τραγῳδιαι, etc., EVRIPIDIS tragœdiæ septendecim, ex | quib. quœdam habent commentaria. | & sunt hœ.

[Titles both in Greek and in Latin.]

VENETIIS APVD ALDVM | MENSE FEBRVA | RIO . M . D . III.

2 vols. 8°; bound in crimped red morocco, gilt, by ROGER PAYNE.

FIRST EDITION of eighteen tragedies. The preface by Aldus to Demetrius Chalcondylas, printed on the back of the title-page, gives the best information concerning the number of copies usually printed for an edition, and on this account is of rare interest. "Mille et amplius boni alicujus autoris volumina singulo quoq; mense emittemus ex Academiâ nostrâ." From the Beckford collection in the Hamilton Palace sale. It is in perfect condition, and is an exceptionally beautiful specimen of the Aldine Press.

"AN EXTREMELY CURIOUS and INTERESTING VOLUME, and of the HIGHEST DEGREE OF RARITY. It was an attempt to reproduce, for the commonalty in France, the 'Poor Man's Bible,' which formerly had, under the title of the Biblia Pauperum, such great popularity in Germany as a Block-book. There is reason to believe that no Block-book edition was ever printed in France, but the WOODCUTS are here carefully copied and accompanied by an explanatory text in French. No copy of this rare volume was in the DIDOT Collection, and BRUNET does not quote the sale of any copy of this edition."

One vol. sm. 4°; bound in calf, with arms of DE THOU stamped on the sides. Numerous and curious woodcuts illustrating the horrible tortures inflicted on Christian martyrs.

This volume comes from the collection of the celebrated bibliophile JACQUES AUGUSTE DE THOU, the friend of Grolier and one of the most remarkable book collectors of the XVIth Century. His arms are on the sides, flanked by those of MARIE DE BRABANÇON-CANY, whom he married in 1587. The monogram under the arms is J. A. and M. (Jacques Auguste, Marie), and is repeated seven times on the back. Books from this collection are rare. Begun about the middle of the XVIth Century, this library was kept by his son, after de Thou's death, and passed into the hands of appreciative heirs. In 1789 the Princes de Rohan were compelled through heavy losses to dispose of it. The sale of the books began January 12, and lasted until May 22, 1789.

"That Gibbon should ever be displaced seems impossible. That wonderful man monopolized, so to speak, the historical genius and the historical learning of a whole generation, and left little, indeed, of either for his contemporaries. He remains the one historian of the eighteenth century whom modern research has neither set aside nor threatened to set aside. We may correct and improve from the stores which have been opened since Gibbon's time; we may write again large parts of his story from other and often truer and more wholesome points of view; but the work of Gibbon as a whole, as the encyclopædic history of 1300 years, as the grandest of historical designs, carried out alike with wonderful power and with wonderful accuracy, must ever keep its place. Whatever else is read, Gibbon must be read too."—E. A. Freeman.

4°; 15 prel. leaves, 184 pp., (8), 92 pp. in the original calf binding. Very fine, clean copy of this remarkable work. EXCESSIVELY RARE, nearly the whole edition having been destroyed by fire in London.

"A remarkable work, but one so scarce as to be hardly known at all, except by name, was published by Glanvil in 1661, with the title, 'The Vanity of Dogmatizing.' A second edition, in 1665, considerably altered, is entitled 'Scepsis Scientifica.' This edition has a dedication to the Royal Society. The style is eminently spirited and eloquent; a little too figurative, like that of Locke, but less blameably, because Glanvil is rather destroying than building up. No one thinks more intrepidly for himself; and it is probable that, even in what seems mere superstition, he had been rather misled by some paradoxical hypothesis of his own ardent genius than by slavishly treading in the steps of others. Few books, I think, are more deserving of being reprinted than the 'Scepsis Scientifica' of Glanvil."—HALLAM.

Glanvill's curious prediction of the Electro-Magnetic Telegraph will be found on page 134: "To conferr at the distance of the Indies by Sympathetick conveyances, may be as usual to future times, as to us in a litterary correspondence." His description of the instrument, and the manner of working it, will be found on pp. 149–150.

A particular Account of the Origin, Government, Language, Laws, and Customs of the Gypsies; their Method of electing their King, &c. . . The Ninth Edition. LONDON: R. Goadby, 1775.

Sm. 8°; pp. xxiv., iv., 347. Portrait, red morocco, gilt back and edges, filleted sides with corner ornaments, inside gilt borders. Contains a BRILLIANT IMPRESSION of the RARE PORTRAIT, the largest and best of this singular character published, and seldom found with the book. FINE COPY of the BEST EDITION, now VERY SCARCE.

"CAREW was born at Devon in 1693, was tried at Exeter about 1739 or 1740, and banished to MARYLAND, where he went at the cost of the public. He gives an amusing account of the country, and his adventures in Maryland, Virginia, New Jersey, New York, and Connecticut, till he embarked at New London for England. His accounts how he bamboozled and bled Whitefield, Thos. Penn, Gov. Thomas, and many others of good repute, are amusing, true or not."—H. Stevens.

Paris: A Quantin Imprimeur-Éditeur, 1883.

4°; bound in Japanese silk, variously and artistically ornamented.
Exemplaire sur papier vélin, No. 320.
This is in many respects the most beautiful and valuable work which has been written on Japanese art. M. Gonse is not only thoroughly acquainted with the subject, but he has been an ardent collector. The book is profusely illustrated by engravings and etchings of objects belonging to the author and other well known collectors of Paris.

370 GOODY TWOSHOES.—The HISTORY of Little GOODY TWOSHOES; otherwise called Mrs. Margery Twoshoes. With the Means by which she acquired her Learning and Wisdom, and in Consequence thereof her Estate. Set forth at large for the Benefit of those,

Who from a State of Rags and Care,
And having Shoes but half a Pair,
Their Fortune and their Fame would fix,
And gallop in their Coach and Six.

383 GUIDONIS DE MONTE ROCHERII MANIPULUS CURATORUM. PARIS: MICHÆLIS DE COLUMBARIA, UDABRICUS GERING et MARTINUS CHRANTZ, 1473.

Sm. folio; bound in red morocco, gilt edges, by DÉROME.

The first printers of France, like those of Italy, were Germans. Two of those named above, Gering and Chrantz, printed the first book issued in Paris. Their types were slightly Romanized, but were much more Gothic in character than those used at the same time in Italy.

This volume is in very fine condition and is a beautiful specimen of the work of the first Parisian printers. It is from the Wodhull Library.

388 HAKLVYT (RICHARD). — The | PRINCIPAL NAVI- | GATIONS, VOYAGES, | TRAFFIQVES AND DISCOVE- | ries of the Engliſh Nation, made by Sea or ouer- | land, to the remote and fartheſt diſtant quarters of the | Earth, at any time within the compaſſe of theſe 1600 yeres: | Diuided into three ſeuerall Volumes, according to the | poſitions of the Regions, whereunto they | were directed.

The firſt VOLUME containeth the worthy Diſcoueries, | &c. of the Engliſh toward the North and Northeaſt by Sea, as of | Lapland. . . .

Whereunto is annexed a briefe Commentary of the true ſtate of Iſland, | and of the Northern Seas and lands ſituate that way: As alſo the | memorable defeat of the Spaniſh huge Armada, Anno 1588.

¶ The ſecond VOLUME comprehendeth the principall Nauigations, Voyages, Traffiques, and diſcoueries of the Engliſh Nation made by Sea or ouer-land, to the South and South-eaſt parts of the World, as well within as without the Streight of Gibralter, at any time within the compaſſe of theſe 1600. yeres: Diuided into two ſeueral parts, &c.

¶ The | THIRD AND LAST | VOLVME OF THE VOY- | AGES, NAVIGATIONS, TRAF- | fiques, and Diſcoueries of the Engliſh Nation, and in | ſome few places, where they haue not been, of ſtrangers, per- | formed within and before the time of theſe hundred yeeres, to all | parts of the Newfound world of America, or the Weſt Indies, from 73. | degrees of Northerly to 57. of Southerly latitude: | etc., etc.

¶ By Richard Haklvyt Preacher, and ſometime Student of Chriſt-Church in Oxford.

Imprinted at London by George Biſhop, | Ralph Newbèrie, and Robert Barker. | Anno 1599–1600.

3 vols. in 2 vols. folio; sumptuously bound in best grogr. green levant morocco super-extra, elaborately and richly gilt backs, filleted sides with elegant corner ornaments, inside lined with vellum, and vellum fly-leaves, broad dentelle gold borders, finely tooled, gilt edges, by Riviere. Best Edition.

A large, clean, and exceedingly fine copy, with the Original Voyage to Cadiz, forming pages 607–19 of the first volume, which is wanting in many copies, having been suppressed by order of Queen Elizabeth, after the disgrace of the Earl of Essex.

The Third Volume of this copy contains a Map of the World, "A true hydrographical deſcription of ſo much of the world as hath beene hitherto diſcouered and is comme to our knowledge," etc., neatly mounted on linen. This map is the same as that of the edition of 1589, but with the addition of Sir Francis Drake's voyage traced upon it. Hallam describes this as "the best map of the sixteenth century, and one of uncommon rarity, which is found in a very few copies of the first edition of Hakluyt's Voyages." ("Literature of Europe," Vol. II. p. 355.)

Oldys devotes twenty pages of his "British Librarian" to a minute and excellent analysis of this edition, pp. 137–158.

This contemporaneous account of Pocahontas has increased rapidly in the estimation of collectors. Barney's copy sold for $150; Bruce's for $175; Menzies's for $220; Barlow's for $300, and a London dealer recently priced it at £120 in his catalogue.

401 HANGER (COL. G.) — The LIFE, ADVENTURES, and OPINIONS of COL. GEORGE HANGER. Written by Himself. To which is added, Advice to the Prelates and Legislators, how to correct the Immorality and Jacobinism of the present Age. . . Advice to the Lovely Cyprians, and to the Fair Sex in general. . . On Matrimony, Compulsive Wedlock, and on Polygamy, etc. etc. LONDON: J. Debrett, 1801.

2 vols. 8°; half calf, gilt backs, marbled edges.

"A very curious and entertaining work. COL. HANGER (afterward Lord Coleraine) served with distinction in the American War. In Vol. II., p. 427, will be found a curious prediction relative to the late Rebellion: 'One of these days, the Northern and Southern powers will fight as vigorously against each other as they both have united to do against the British.'"

402 HANSON (ELIZABETH).—AN ACCOUNT of the CAPTIVITY of ELIZABETH HANSON, Late of KACHECKY in NEW ENGLAND: who, with Four of her Children, and Servant-Maid. were taken Captive by the Indians, and carried into CANADA. . . . A New Edition. Taken in Substance from her own Mouth, by SAMUEL BOWNAS. LONDON: James Phillips, 1787.

8°; red morocco, filleted sides, gilt top, inside gilt borders, by BRADSTREET. UNCUT. Fine, clean copy. SCARCE.

Nothing is calculated to give one a more vivid idea of the rapid and wonderful growth of this country than the perusal of these simple accounts of the sufferings of white prisoners at the hands of the Indians. It seems incredible that within such a comparatively short time those parts of the country which had been settled longest should have been at the mercy of savages. But these brief histories tell their tales with a directness which leaves no room for doubt as to their trustworthiness.

445 HOMER.—The Entire Works of Homer. Printed in Greek, by Demetrius Cretensis. Two vols. folio. Florence: 1488.

First Edition. Bound in old red morocco, gilt backs. A very large copy, measuring 13⅜ by 9¼ inches, quite perfect, with beautifully illuminated capitals throughout (several of which contain the arms of a former owner), the margins and fly-leaves enriched with the valuable MS. notes of the Abbé Bignon, to whom the book was presented by Vincent François Jeune, of Marseilles.

The work commences with two prefaces, one in Latin by Bernardus Nerlius, on the recto of the first leaf; the other by Chalcondyles the Editor, in Greek, commencing on the verso of the same leaf. The Latin preface ends with these words:

"Vale. FLORENTIAE Idibus Ianuariis. M.CCCC.LXXXVIII."

Then follows the biography of Homer from Herodotus, succeeded by the preface to Plutarch's biography of the poet. The forty-second leaf is blank, and the Iliad begins on the recto of the forty-third leaf:

ΙΛΙΑΔΟΣ Α ΟΜΗΡΟΥ ΡΑΨΩΔΙΑΣ.

ending on the verso of the two hundred and sixth leaf as follows:

ΤΕΛΟΣ ΤΗΣ Ο
ΜΗΡΟΥ
ΔΟΣ

The second volume begins with the Odyssey, without preface:

ΟΔΥΣΣΕΙΑΣ Α ΟΜΕΡΟΥ ΡΑΨΩΔΙΑΣ

The Odyssey occupies one hundred and sixty-one leaves, and is followed by the Batrachomyomachia, occupying four leaves. The Hymns begin on the recto of the one hundred and sixty-sixth leaf and end with the volume on the verso of the one huudred and eighty-ninth:

ΤΕΛΟΣ ΤΩΝ ΤΟΥ
ΟΜΕΡΟΥ ΥΜΝ
ΩΝ

the whole concluding with a colophon of nine lines.

The foregoing volumes are thus minutely described because they are, as Dibdin justly says, "the boast of every classical collection." Bibliographers and scholars have written enthusiastically of them for centuries. They charm alike the student and the lover of beautiful typographical work. The paper, ink, workmanship, and ornamentation form a fitting shrine for the verses of the great poet of antiquity. And the annotations of the Abbé Bignon have a special interest from his wonderful learning and high position. Born in 1589, he won a great reputation by the publication of a book entitled "CHOROGRAPHIE" when he was only eleven years of age. He was highly esteemed by Henry IV., became a Counselor of State, and was appointed by Richelieu to the charge of the royal library.

This treatise terminates on the recto of the 10*th and last leaf with the word*

FINIS

THE FIRST EDITION of the works of HORACE. This copy is from the Syston Park Collection and contains the following note by the former owner: "One of the most valuable books printed in the fifteenth century. See Gesner's remarks in his Preludia on this edition. They prove, in his opinion, that the edition was formed only from one manuscript, which the printers implicitly followed, and from this singular circumstance he judiciously infers that the good readings which occur in it may be depended upon as proceeding ab antiquo codice non ab ingenio correctoris. . . . It is the only ancient edition which contains the celebrated reading of pretium mentis for per vim mentis, in verse 140, Epist. 2, Liber 2. The present copy, with the exception of Lord Spencer's, is the finest in the country and far superior to Mr. Grenville's and to the copies in the Bodleian and Melzi collection, which were both in our possession. Mr. Hibbert purchased this copy of Constantine Jennings, who valued it at Two Hundred Pounds."

Expliciunt ſermones oratii.·.

Bound in red morocco extra, gilt back, filleted sides with corner ornaments, gilt edges, many rough leaves, by C. LEWIS.

This is believed to be the FIRST EDITION of the two Books of Satires. It is so rare that DIBDIN doubted its existence. It has a peculiar typographical interest, as it is the first book in which signatures occur.

454 HORACE.

HORATIVS

COLOPHON.

VENETIIS APVD ALDVM ROMA.
NVM MENSE MAIO. M. DI.
ALDVS. M. R.

8°; bound in dark blue morocco, with the Aldine Anchor stamped in gold on the sides, gilt edges.

The FIRST ALDINE EDITION, and excessively rare; as much so, according to Brunet and Renouard, as the VIRGIL of the same date. This copy is perfect in every respect. It has the blank leaf at the end and capital letters throughout skillfully painted by hand. It is said to have been the Blarzi copy, and to have brought, unbound, one thousand francs at the sale of that collection. Subsequently it became a part of the Syston Park Library.

455 HORACE.— QVINCTI | HORATII | FLACCI | Opera omnia; | Cum nouis Argumentis. [Small ornamental device.] | SEDANI: | Ex Typographia & typis nouissi | mis IOANNIS IANNONI. | M.DC.XXVII.

64°; bound in red morocco, fillets on sides, by DÉROME. The title and pages are all ruled. This volume is in perfect condition, and is remarkable for its small size. It is from the Syston Park Library.

456 HORACE.— QVINTI | HORATII | FLACCI | POËMATA, | Scholiis sive Annota- | tionibus instar. | Commentarii | illustrata, à | IOANNE BOND. | Editio Nova. |

AMSTELODAMI: | Apud Danielem Elzevirium, 1676.

12°; bound in dark blue crimped morocco, with borders of overlapping circles inclosed in fillets, gilt edges, by BOZERIAN.

This is an excellent example of the Elzevir Press, in perfect condition.

Almanac for 21 years, 1498 to 1518; 88 leaves; a–l in 8s; 27 lines to page, height 204 mill. Brunet gives the collation as a–l in 8s and A in 8, but the above ends with the Prayer to the Sisters of the Virgin Mary, with blank space at foot of page. One small worm-hole in four leaves. Top margin of first leaf and bottom margins of 14 leaves neatly repaired with vellum; borders on two leaves clipped but similarly repaired.

Among the numerous very fine and curious designs in the borders are figures of the theological and cardinal virtues, the Life of Christ, the Prodigal Son, &c., and a Dance of Death, which extends from the recto of g. 8 to the verso of i. 1. The designs of the Prodigal Son are given from this edition in Dibdin's "Bibliog. Decameron," Vol. I., p. 61.

This is an unusually beautiful and interesting specimen of the Parisian Horæ, being in contemporaneous binding and with all the engravings free from color. To find a copy in such perfect condition is a great rarity, inasmuch as the majority of the books of this class were colored by hand so as to make them resemble, as closely as possible, the manuscript missals of the time. Where this work was performed by skillful artists it added to the brilliant appearance of the volume. But as a rule the colorists were inferior, at this period, to the engravers, and the strong, spirited woodcuts, in their original state, will always present superior attractions to book-lovers.

Large 8°; bound in old crimson morocco, sides filleted, gilt edges, silver clasps.

This is not only the finest Book of Hours, printed on vellum, in the present collection, but it would be difficult to equal it anywhere. Only two other copies are recorded: one in the Didot collection, the other in the library of St. Géneviéve in Paris. Both of these, however, lack the last fourteen leaves, which are to be found in this copy. The vellum is especially good, the printing unusual in its excellence, and the coloring is worthy of a miniaturist of the first class. The Dance of Death, hunting scenes, and quaint conventional figures compose the borders. The whole volume, in short, shows the greatest care and skill on the part both of the printer and the artist.

It has the Calendar from 1508 to 1528.

472 HORE diue virginis Marie secūdum vsum Ro- | manum Printed in Roman type, in red and black, on PAPER. 108 leaves; every page surrounded with elaborately executed woodcut border; 16 large wood-engravings, 33 small engravings of the Saints, &c., ALL UNCOLORED. The subjects of the engravings of this volume are of an unusual character, and are beautifully executed. The book is in perfect condition and a charming specimen of the work of Kerver's press.

474 Heures a lusaige de Rōme . . . Printed on PAPER, in Gothic type; the initial letters inserted by hand in colors. 104 leaves. 4°; bound in old calf, the sides and back stamped and inlaid with leathers of various colors, forming an elaborate and brilliant pattern, edges gilt and gauffered.
This is in many respects the most beautiful printed Book of Hours in the collection. The designs are by GEOFROY TORY, and are in his best style. Every page is surrounded by a border, and there are thirteen full-page engravings. All of the capitals are printed in red. In addition to this, the binding is an exceptionally fine and perfect example of contemporaneous workmanship. The book as a whole makes a bibliographical treasure such as any collector counts himself happy to possess.
The whole inclosed in a morocco case, lined with velvet.

478 LE LIVRE D'HEURES de la Reine

ANNE DE BRETAGNE.

Traduit du Latin et accompagné de notices inédites par M. L'ABBÉ DELAUNAY, chanoine de Meaux et Curé du Diocése de Paris. PARIS: L. Curmer, Éditeur, MDCCCXLI.
4°; bound in crimson levant morocco with gilt clasps, gilt edges.
This is a brilliant and faithful reproduction of an exquisite book. No manuscript in the world surpasses the famous Hours of Anne of Brittany in brilliancy of coloring, accuracy of drawing, or beauty of design. The borders represent flowers taken from the garden of the Queen, and the Scriptural scenes are depicted with marvelous dexterity. Although this book was published nearly fifty years ago it cannot be excelled to-day as an example of skillful chromo-lithographic work.
There is also a volume of descriptive text. Both volumes are inclosed in a case lined with quilted silk.

This was supposed until recently to be the first book printed in Boston. The map which it contains is the first one engraved in New England. The present copy is perfect and has the genuine map in fine condition. It is so rare in this state that while Mr. Brinley had several copies not one of them was perfect.

The author was especially qualified to act as the historian of the thrilling experiences he describes. His account of them is graphic and comparatively free from the mannerisms and prejudices which mar the writings of some of his contemporaries. Such volumes are the foundation of our knowledge of these stirring times, and their value both to the student and the amateur must continually increase.

513 JENSON (NICOLAS).— BREVIARIUM JUXTA RITUM ROMANE CURIE (cum Calendario).

Hui' opis corrector extitit Georgi' d' spatharijs īpssor uero Nicolaus ienson gallicus: hac nr̄a tēpestate impssor. prīceps; Qd' qdē op' īpressū in florētissima urbe uenetiar. est. 1478.

2 vols. in 1, folio; PRINTED ON VELLUM, with exquisite borders, historiated initials, and numerous capital letters all beautifully illuminated in gold and colors, with the arms of a Cardinal in the lower margin; from the Beckford library, Hamilton Palace. Old French red morocco extra, leather joints, silk linings, gilt edges, lettered "Manuscri."

This, as an artistic monument, is equal to a fine illuminated MS. The borders and figures and painted ornaments are extremely elegant, and include some work in fine camaieu-rouge. Among the animal figures there is one of an elephant, and another of a bear walking off with a man and his spear over his shoulder. There are MS. additions, evidently made for the Cardinal, on the blank leaves of the book to supply certain offices not included in the original impression.

This Breviary on vellum is not excelled by any of the magnificent productions of Jenson's press. The illuminations give it the appearance of one of the grand old Manuscript Breviaries. The binder was evidently deceived by the resemblance when he stamped "Manuscri" on the back of the volume.

Folio. Bound in blue morocco, gilt edges, by BOYET.

Printed on vellum, ruled throughout in red, and ornamented with borders, ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY-THREE miniatures, and numerous capital letters, richly illuminated in gold, silver, and colors.

Only one other copy is known on vellum, namely, that in the National Library in Paris, and this, which equals it in condition and beauty, is mentioned by Van Praet as formerly in the library of the Maréchal de RICHELIEU. It can be called properly a grand work, measuring sixteen by eleven inches, and is unexcelled in importance as a specimen of early Parisian printing. The blank corners of some of the leaves are mended; otherwise the volume is in perfect condition. From the Syston Park Library.

543 LACTANTIUS.— ADVERSUS GENTES, DE IRA DEI, ETC. SUBIACO: 1465.

Folio; bound in red morocco extra, sides and back richly gilt, gilt edges. From the Beckford Library.

This volume commands attention as the FIRST EDITION of the FIRST KNOWN BOOK PRINTED IN ITALY. It marks the beginning, therefore, of an era in the history of typography second in importance only to that begun by the printing of the Gutenberg Bible. Taken all in all, the work of the Italian printers stands unequaled, and is likely to remain so.

Two of Fust's workmen, Conrad Sweynheym and Arnold Pannartz, settled at the Monastery of Subiaco, thirteen miles from Rome, and published this Lactantius in 1465. It is printed with characters not before used in the printing press, and much like those found in the Italian manuscripts of the period. Unlike the angular Gothic types, they were rounded in form, and were the remote parents of those modern types which are to this day known among printers as Roman. Here are found also the first passages of Greek printed with movable types. It is an extremely regular and fine piece of printing, especially remarkable as a first attempt in a new and foreign locality. It is illuminated throughout by hand, and has many capital letters heightened by gold leaf laid on after the manner of ancient manuscripts. It contains the Table and Errata, and is perfect in every respect.

This is a marked instance of the pains taken by the early printers to select notable books for reproduction. Lactantius wrote in the early part of the fourth century, and from the religious character of his works and the finished elegance of his style he has been called the "Christian Cicero."

Sm. 4°; bound in crimson levant morocco, gilt edges, by BEDFORD.

This book is most valuable for the particulars it contains of the cruelties committed by the Spaniards in Peru, Mexico, and adjacent kingdoms of South America, from the year 1493, when the Spaniards first commenced to inhabit the continent, almost to the date of the present volume—cruelties carried on for such a length of time and with a pertinacity so remarkable as to call forth even in those times a remonstrance against such inhuman barbarity. It is EXCESSIVELY RARE.

Mediolani Impreſſum per Magiſtrum Dionyſium Parauiſinum. MCCCCLXXVI. Die XXX Ianuarii.

All bibliographers agree in the opinion that this is one of the RAREST BOOKS in existence. In the preface to the ALDINE edition of 1494–9 (the first book printed at the celebrated ALDINE press) it is stated that, even at that time, "NO COPIES OF THIS EDITION COULD BE PROCURED, AFTER THE MOST DILIGENT SEARCH." The famous Greek scholar, Dr. Charles Burney, considered it "the most rare and valuable book in his collection." After the Doctor's death it was estimated at £600, and purchased at this sum by the authorities of the British Museum. Before the printing of this book, vacant spaces were usually left in books for the insertion of the Greek passages with a pen. DEMETRIUS Cretensis, so called from being a native of Crete, was of very important service in the editing of the first Greek books. Besides this FIRST EDITION of LASCARIS, he assisted DEMETRIUS CHALCONDYLAS in the Editio Princeps of HOMER, published at Florence, 1488. He was afterwards employed by CARDINAL XIMINES on the Complutensian Polyglot. The preface of DEMETRIUS to this First Greek book is exceedingly curious, and is addressed "Ingenuis ſtudioſiſſimis adoleſcẽtibus." The type is of a medium size, resembling the manuscripts of those days, and has been followed in the first ÆSOP, the first Lexicon of JOHANNES CRASTONUS, and the Florentine HOMER of 1488.

VIRG. Georg.

LONDON: Printed by J. C. for Samuel Heyrick, at Grays- | Inne-Gate in Holborn. 1672.

Sm. 4°; bound in dark blue morocco extra, by MATTHEWS.

Sir William Talbot thinks "it is clear from this book, that the long-looked-for discovery of the Indian Sea does nearly approach; and that Carolina presumes that the accomplishment of this glorious designe is reserved for her." Lederer, who was a German, traveled far into the interior of Virginia, and imagined that he had nearly reached the shores of the great South Sea. He made himself obnoxious to the people of Virginia, and sought refuge in Maryland, where he was well received by Sir William Talbot, who, "finding him a modest and ingenious person and a pretty scholar," says, "I thought it common Justice to give him an occasion of vindicating himself from what I had heard of him; which truly he did with so convincing reason and circumstance, as quite abolished those former impressions in me, and made me desire this account of his travels, which here you have faithfully rendered out of Latine from his owne writings, with an entire map of the Territory he traversed."—Preface.

A copy at the Griswold sale in New York a few years since brought $315.

This is an UNCUT copy of this very rare book. The map is in exceptionally good condition.

Folio; orange levant morocco extra, gilt leaves, by BEDFORD.

"This inestimable book, a treasure of all the learning respecting the East and West Indies and the navigation thither at the end of the sixteenth century, has been in the highest esteem for nearly a century, and was given to each ship sailing to India, as a log-book. Hence the many editions (6 in Dutch, 3 in French, and 1 in Latin), which is also the cause why fine copies, especially with all the plates and maps, are so very rare. The description of America occupies pages 16 to 82 of the third part."—F. MULLER.

From the Barlow Collection. It is a singularly beautiful copy of a book which is rare in any condition, and which is almost never found with all the maps in good order. The entire title-page is engraved, and is especially interesting as the work of William Rogers, the first English engraver. The present is a perfect and brilliant impression of the plate.

MANUSCRIPTS.

Sm. 4°; bound by Matthews, in brown crushed levant morocco extra, gilt edges.

With manuscript verses above and below every print. The next to the last leaf contains a very curiously executed reversible head, which, viewed from beneath, represents a bearded man with hat and plume; on reversing the book the same drawing represents an animated skull. The last leaf, entitled Memento Mori, represents a skull resting on a Bible and surmounted by an hour-glass, etc. The volume is Unique.

617 Breviarium Ordinis Fratrum Prædicatorum S. Dominici. MANUSCRIPT on fine Vellum, of the thirteenth century, of English execution. Written in Gothic letter, with the musical notation, in black and red inks, in double columns, on 430 leaves. 28 illuminated initial letters, of which 13 contain miniatures. The other initial letters in blue and red, with connecting ornaments in same colors running along the margins, etc.

Thick 8°; bound in crushed levant morocco, watered-silk linings, gilt edges. With silver clasps.

At end of volume are six pages of prayers, etc., in old hands. Small upper blank corner of many of the leaves worn; blank lower margin of first leaf repaired.

618 Biblia Sacra.— MANUSCRIPT of the thirteenth century, written in a minute but remarkably clear and beautiful Gothic hand on 568 leaves of very fine Vellum. Many neatly executed small illuminated letters and illuminated or colored ornaments at side or between the columns of the text.

Thick small 8°; calf, gilt back and edges.

A library stamp erased from first page. The manuscript contains the entire Bible, is apparently of English execution, and about six hundred years old.

619 Biblia Sacra, cum Prologo S. Hieronymi. MANUSCRIPT on the finest VELLUM, of the thirteenth century, of ENGLISH execution. Beautifully written in a minute but very clear Gothic hand, in double columns, on 639 leaves. 139 illuminated initial letters, 88 of which contain delicately executed miniatures. The other initial letters in red and blue, with very numerous narrow ornaments in same colors running down the outer margin of text or between the columns. On the eighth page is an illuminated ornament containing eight miniatures, filling the entire space between the columns and part of the upper and lower margins.

Thick 12°; calf, gilt back, sides inlaid, with gilt tooling, gilt edges.

This volume, like the preceding, contains the whole Bible, and is a wonderful specimen of the patience and skill shown by the mediæval monks. The fineness of the vellum would seem to make impossible such diminutive chirography. But the letters are formed with the greatest precision and, in spite of the lapse of centuries, are still in perfect preservation.

620 CHANSONS ET MOTETS. Consisting of three hundred and ninety-six pages, of which the larger portion have the words and score written out in French and Latin; table of contents at beginning, with the composers' names written at the head in various colors, full-page letter "B" executed in blue and olive interlaced scroll-work, also eleven large capitals of the same character in black, red, blue, olive, and yellow inks, with one hundred and four initials somewhat smaller, and many other initials yet smaller.

Oblong minimo, measuring 5⅞ by 7¾ inches, in the original French binding, richly tooled, gauffered edges. SÆC. XVI.

UNIQUE, ORIGINAL, AND ROYAL MANUSCRIPT IN SUMPTUOUS BINDING. This number consists of a volume of a collection of "Chansons et Motets" which was arranged for five, six, and eight voices in Latin, French, Italian, and Dutch, with the music. It is written on paper, and was executed for Henry II. of France and Diana of Poitiers.

The date, 1552, is inserted in a large ornamental capital at folio 145.

This volume, from the fineness of the design of its binding and the interest of its original ownership, is one of the most important examples of its kind that has ever been offered for sale. It brought at the sale of M. Léopold Double in 1863 five thousand two hundred and fifty francs. In addition to its acquired historical interest, the book is of considerable importance in itself in regard to the history of music, on account of its table of contents, which gives the names of various French composers of the sixteenth century, among whom will be found: Phil. de Wildre, Cresquillon, Ch. Chastelain, Ciprian de Rose, and Anthoine Gally.

The heraldic "ex libris" of the celebrated bibliophile, M. Double, will be found on the front inside cover, where are the following MS. notes in his handwriting: "Voir la date de 1552, page 145, p. 97, hymne par Charles VIII., p. 75, 77, 82, 186 Clement Marot. p. 172, Diane à Henri II., p. 187, François I."

The marvelously beautiful and original French binding, of a semi-Maioli, semi-Grolier style, was doubtless designed for King Henry II. by "Le Petit Bernard." The sides and back are painted and inlaid in colored enamels and leathers. Both sides are covered with green floriated, conventional Gothic ornaments and an intersecting design in black and white, the parallel lines of which are pointillé in the centers. The middle of the fore side has a large heraldic and allegorical design of circular shape, in the center of which is a shield of the royal arms of France, above which is a regal crown. Depending from the upper portion of the shield are a collar of "SS" and cockle-shells, from which also hangs the jewel of the Order of St. Louis. Amid silver pointillé ornamentations are the monogram "H. D." interlaced, three silver half-moons, a large crescent silver moon, allusive to the chaste goddess Diana, and the king's initial "H" twice repeated. On the other side, in the middle of a circle and upon a square scroll, is the word "BASSVS." The back is enameled in black and white, and tooled in gilt. The design is lozenge-shaped, chequered. The edges are as fine a specimen of gauffered work as can be found. It is a floriated and interlaced design, pointillé throughout.

This binding is reproduced in Joseph Cundall's "Bookbindings, Ancient and Modern." It is there styled "Recueils de Chansons et Motetts, with the Arms and Monograms of Henry II. and Diana of Poitiers. Binding of the Middle of the XVI. Century," and is presented in that authority as a representative example of a "Diane de Poitiers reliure." The eminent bibliopegist writes: "Diana of Poitiers, the mistress of Henry II. of France, devoted much attention to the binding of her books; perhaps those executed for her are the finest specimens ever produced; probably they were designed by 'Le Petit Bernard' (Bernhard Salomon of Lyons), who also made drawings for her jewels. They were usually engraved with a bow and crescent, sometimes with an arrow rising from a tomb with the motto 'Sola vivit in illo.' On the love offerings from the king an 'H' is worked in with a crown and fleur-de-lis. The practice of inscribing mottos on books was very usual. There is a beautiful book mentioned in Dibdin's 'Decameron,' which was published by Aldus. It is bound in fine Italian olive binding, with the device of a serpent entwining a ring and a motto, 'Scilicet es superis labor est.' On many of Henry's own books are stamped and interwoven the initials 'H' and 'D' of his own and mistress's names, with crescents, bows, quivers, and other symbols of the chase appropriate to a lady bearing the name of Diana. (Many of the ornaments on the pottery of Oiron known as Faïence de Henri II. were evidently stamped with bookbinder's tools.) On some of his books the 'H' is interwoven with a 'C,' and in this case the latter initial is that of his wife, Catherine de Medicis."

621 CHANT BOOK OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH SERVICE, the MASS, etc., on VELLUM, illuminated in gold and colors, rubricated, and with the score of the music. The title-page with border in gold and colors, eighteen illuminated large initial letters, and numerous smaller capitals. The work is attributed to the fourteenth century.

Thick small 4°; original leather binding, on wooden boards, with eight triform brass ornaments with bosses on the sides, also brass corners.

Examples of chant books of this size WITH THE MUSICAL SCORE are excessively rare.

The above consists of 265 leaves, or 530 pages, of which a few are stained and one or two slightly mended. It is a splendid example both of early binding and of paleography.

622 CICERO.

Senectvte M. T. C. PARADOXA.

MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, of the fifteenth century, of ITALIAN execution. Beautifully written in Roman letters on 128 leaves, with illuminated initials. The first page of each of the three treatises is surrounded by a border, containing floriated ornaments in colors, medallion portraits, etc., on a gold background. The title of each treatise is written in gold on a purple background, beneath which is an illuminated initial and the first word of the text in gold on red or green background.

12°; oak boards covered with stamped leather, gilt edges. A fine specimen with ample margins, from the A. FIRMIN-DIDOT Collection, with his ex-libris.

623 CICERO.

M. Tullij Ciceronis de Finibus bonor et malor ad Brutū.

BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, executed in ITALY in the fifteenth century. 95 leaves, text in Roman letters, with small illuminated capitals. The first page surrounded by a very delicately executed ornamental border, formed of interlaced ornaments with designs of children and birds. The initial letter on first page represents the bust of a scholar with a book in his hand.

Folio; bound by LORTIC in green crushed levant morocco extra, gilt edges.

624 HIERONYMUS (SANCTUS).— DE REPROBATIONE VOLUPTATIS. MANUSCRIPT on fine VELLUM, executed in the second half of the fifteenth century. 117 leaves, of which the title-page is very chaste, with miniature in gold and colors, borders with cherubs, etc., etc., also 54 fine gold and colored capitals with arabesque ornaments. SÆC. XV.

4° (10½ x 8¾ inches); limp vellum binding.

This UNIQUE MANUSCRIPT was formerly in the collection of Cardinal Salviati. It is a most interesting example of fifteenth century Italian work, and is in fine condition except that the inner border of the title is mended and the first two leaves are slightly stained.

ST. JEROME, known also in biography as "Eusebius Hieronymus Sophronius," was born on the confines of Dalmatia, circa 331–345. He retired to the desert of Chalcis in 374, and became a priest at Antioch four years later. For three years afterward he lived at Constantinople in close intimacy with Gregory Nazianzus. In 382 St. Jerome came to Rome and acted as the secretary of Pope Damasius, engaging in his great work of biblical revision. He was celebrated chiefly for his Pelagian controversies, and died on September 30 in the year 420. Erasmus edited his works. St. Jerome is "universally regarded as the most learned and eloquent of the Latin Fathers."

625 Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis. MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, of the fifteenth century, of FRENCH execution. Written in Gothic letters on 188 leaves. 21 miniatures, many large illuminated initials, and numerous smaller initials illuminated, five emblazoned coats-of-arms. Those pages which contain miniatures are surrounded by elaborate floriated borders; very delicately designed and brilliantly illuminated borders at the sides of the text on the other pages.

4°; bound in oak boards covered with red velvet, with silver clasps and corner ornaments. "Diewerke Rinjes, I. L." engraved on inside of the clasps.

626 Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis. MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, of the fifteenth century, of FRENCH execution. Written in Gothic letters on 106 leaves, with illuminated initials, illuminated borders at side of every page (those pages which contain miniatures being surrounded by a full border), 13 large and 22 small miniatures. The borders to the Calendar embody small miniatures of the occupation of each month and its zodiacal sign.

8°; bound in oak boards covered with red velvet, gilt edges, with the book-plate of DE MARIDORT. Manuscript writing in an old hand on two fly-leaves and inside cover at end of volume.

627 Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis. MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, of the fifteenth century, of FRENCH execution. Written in Gothic letters on 167 leaves, with the initials and blank spaces illuminated. 12 large miniatures exquisitely executed in colors and brilliantly heightened with gold. 14 large initial letters, some of them containing small miniatures; 2 small miniatures in the ornamented border of one leaf. The pages containing the large miniatures surrounded with broad and elaborately illuminated borders; very delicately executed illuminated floriated borders at the side of the text on the other leaves — in a great many cases with the borders on both sides of the text; a few leaves without the borders.

4°; old red smooth morocco, gilt back, gilt edges gauffered, with manuscript inscription: "Monastery of Cellę Abbatis Septr," at foot of first leaf of text. In pull-off case.

628 Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis. MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, of the sixteenth century, of FRENCH execution. Written in Gothic letters on 60 leaves. 7 large and 5 small, finely executed miniatures; numerous illuminated initial letters, ornamental borders, and half borders to many pages.

4°; bound by MATTHEWS in blue velvet, vellum linings, gilt edges.

629 Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis. MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, of the fifteenth century, of ENGLISH execution. Written in Gothic letters on 167 leaves. 26 highly finished miniatures, a full-page emblazoned coat-of-arms, many illuminated initial letters and broad floriated borders in gold and colors.

Sm. folio; oak boards covered with pale green velvet, gilt edges. Stitched on a fly-leaf is a mediæval scapula, or charm, being a head of CHRIST painted on a small piece of vellum.

The miniature at the beginning of the "Office for the Dead" is an exceptionally beautiful and artistic example of skill in painting.

630 Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis. MANUSCRIPT on fine VELLUM, of the early part of the sixteenth century, of FRENCH execution. Beautifully written in Gothic letters on 245 leaves. The first page of each of the 12 leaves of the Calendar depicts, in colors heightened with gold, the appropriate occupations of the month, in the center of which scenes the first part of the Calendar of each month is inserted. 11 large miniatures, 7 small miniatures, and 14 large initial letters, all beautifully executed in colors and gold. All the pages containing the miniatures and the large initial letters are surrounded with broad borders, on most of which are depicted, on gold backgrounds, exquisitely finished figures of flowers, insects, etc. Very numerous delicately illuminated small initial letters.

Sm. 12°; fine old smooth morocco, gilt back and edges. In Solander case.

The workmanship of this volume is of the same style as that in the "Hours of Anne of Brittany." It is the daintiest object in the whole collection, and may successfully challenge comparison with any similar manuscript in existence.

631 Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis. MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, of the fifteenth century, of FRENCH execution. Written in Gothic letters on 173 leaves. The Calendar (12 leaves) has illuminations at sides and foot of each of its first pages, each containing two miniatures — one depicting the occupation of the month, the other the sign of the Zodiac. The body of the volume contains 16 large and very finely executed miniatures, besides 31 small miniatures of the Saints.

4°; bound in fine old red smooth morocco, gilt edges.

632 Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis. MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, of the fifteenth century, of FRENCH execution. Written in Gothic letters on 223 leaves. 20 curious miniatures in gray tint, touched up with white and heightened with gold; those pages containing the miniatures surrounded with broad illuminated borders made up of grotesque figures, etc. 20 large illuminated initial letters; many smaller illuminated initial letters, with marginal decorations in colors and gold. Blank spaces in text illuminated.

12°; bound by LORTIC in crimson crushed levant morocco extra, back and sides inlaid with green morocco, gilt back, richly tooled, gilt borders and center ornaments on sides, vellum linings, gilt over marbled edges. In crushed levant morocco Solander case.

633 Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis. MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, of the fifteenth century, of FRENCH execution. Written in Gothic letters on 216 leaves. 18 large miniatures, 13 smaller miniatures, besides 24 miniatures (depicting the zodiacal signs and the various occupations of the months) in the illuminated borders to the Calendar. Those pages containing miniatures are surrounded by illuminated borders, in each of which the initials V I are introduced; in these borders are also various animals, and a coat-of-arms (repeated several times). Delicately drawn illuminated side ornaments to nearly all the pages, depicting, in colors and gold, flowers and fruit. Very numerous illuminated initial letters. Blank spaces of text illuminated.

Sm. 12°; fine old smooth morocco, gilt back, smooth morocco linings, gilt, gilt edges.

634 HORÆ PEMBROCHIANÆ.—An Illuminated MANUSCRIPT of the HOURS of the BLESSED VIRGIN MARY. Written for WILLIAM HERBERT, First Earl of Pembroke, about 1440, and enriched with 267 miniatures, besides hundreds of capital letters in gold and colors, the whole written on 195 leaves of VELLUM.

Folio; bound in boards covered with red velvet, silver clasps and bosses engraved with scriptural scenes after the manner of the Italian niello work.

The volume really consists of three parts. At the beginning are inserted twenty leaves of vellum, on the first of which is emblazoned the coat-of-arms of WILLIAM HERBERT, Earl of Pembroke. On the following leaf is a full-length portrait of the Earl, clad in silver armor, kneeling at a prie-dieu before an altar. The fifteen additional leaves bound up at the end of the volume contain prayers in English, written in a bold Gothic character of the sixteenth century. These prayers were written by QUEEN CATHERINE PARR, whose sister was the first wife of WILLIAM HERBERT, Earl of Pembroke, and who may have written them specially for the use of her brother-in-law, the Earl. The margins of the Calendar contain many interesting entries, from which it is evident that the owner was a stout adherent of the Yorkists, as all the battles chronicled there are Lancastrian defeats. This would agree well with the ownership of the Earl of Pembroke, who was a devoted adherent of the cause of the Duke of York, and who was beheaded by the Lancastrians on the day following his defeat at Banbury in 1469. The Rose of York is prominent in the decoration.

It is impossible to do justice to the merits of this volume by a verbal description. In the opinion of the most competent living authorities on such matters the whole work was executed in England. This adds greatly to its importance and value, owing to the rarity of English manuscripts of this period. The chirography is most exact, the ink is lustrous, the drawing of the miniatures is unusually correct, and the colors are of exceptional brilliancy. Its condition, moreover, is faultless. The binding alone has artistic merit sufficient to give the volume a high standing. Taken all in all, it is unquestionably the most beautiful and important manuscript of English execution outside of the British Museum. It ranks in the same class with the Bedford and Grimani Missals and the HOURS OF ANNE OF BRITTANY. In beauty of workmanship, and in fact in everything except historical associations, it far excels the Missal of CHARLES VI. which sold for 76,000 francs at the sale of the DIDOT Collection.

It is remarkable both for breadth of design and minuteness of finish. The large full-page painting on fol. 131 is of most admirable execution. It gives a conventional view of the city of Jerusalem, and portrays three great events in the Passion of our LORD. In the center we see, in a sort of open alcove, with steps leading up to it, CHRIST blindfolded and buffetted, the figures of his eight tormentors being drawn with great skill. On the right, in another chamber open to the street, is seen PILATE washing his hands; six attendants stand around, and in the street are four other spectators, who look into the hall with an anxious expression that is depicted with marvelous skill. At the top of the page, on the greensward of a hill above the buildings, we see the Crucifixion; a group of six figures stand around the cross, two of them being on horseback, and on the left ST. JOHN supports the BLESSED VIRGIN, who is fainting. A soldier pierces our LORD in the left side with a spear. In the distance is indicated a company of armed men. The whole is surrounded by a border composed of flowers and conventional figures.

635 HYMN AND LITANIES.— HYMNE NOUVELLE à l'honneur de SAINT LOUIS, avec ses MAXIMES. Dediées et Presentées AU ROY. MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, 32 pages, exquisitely written and illuminated. The manner in which the gold letters are formed is worthy of the best illuminators of the fifteenth century. They stand distinctly above the page, and are remarkably brilliant. The volume possesses great interest from the fact that it was made specially for, and was dedicated to, LOUIS XIV., and belonged to his library. It is perfect and in beautiful condition.

4°; bound in old red morocco, with the arms of Louis XIV. in gold on the sides.

636 JUVENAL.— IVNII IVVENALIS AQVINATIS SATYRARVM. MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, of the latter part of the fifteenth century, of ITALIAN execution. Beautifully written in Roman letters, on 65 leaves. Five illuminated initial letters; very delicately executed illumination at foot of first page, containing, on a blue ground, an elaborate scroll ornament in gold, with pearls, and escutcheon in center.

Sm. folio; bound by HAGUÉ in brown crushed levant morocco, blind tooling on sides in the Venetian style, gilt edges. From the Library of A. FIRMIN-DIDOT, with his ex-libris.

637 LACTANTIUS FIRMIANUS.— DIVINÆ INSTITUTIONES. MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, of the fifteenth century. Beautifully executed in Roman letters, on 313 pages. Six fine large initial letters illuminated in gold and colors (about 1⅝ or 1¾ inches square), connected with side ornaments, executed in blue, red, green, and white. Illuminated ornamental border surrounding three-quarters of first page. Some marginal manuscript notes. A few slight tears in the margins skillfully repaired with vellum.

Sm. folio (size 11¼ by 8 inches); elegantly bound by MATTHEWS in brown crushed levant morocco extra, gilt back, the sides beautifully and chastely tooled in gilt, inside borders, gilt edges. Enclosed in chamois-lined limp wrapper, with morocco back, lettered, and flaps; with pull-off case.

638 PETRARCH.—FRANCISCI. PETRARCE. POETAE. CLARISSIMI. SONECTORVM Beautifully executed ITALIAN MANUSCRIPT on VELLUM, of the fifteenth century, in Roman letters; comprising: 7 leaves of Table; 3 blank leaves; the Sonnets, leaves 1–141; De Amore Trivmphvs, leaves 142–178; 3 blank leaves; Vita Francisci Pe. Poe. Clar. edita per Leonardum Aretinvm, 7 leaves; 1 blank leaf. The title to the Sonnets written in gold on blue background; the first page of text surrounded by ornamental border, containing bust-portraits; several finely executed initial letters containing illuminated miniatures, and fine arabesque borders at one side of several pages; with very numerous initial letters in gold and colors.

Sm. folio; bound in calf, gilt back and edges.

639 Preces.— MANUSCRIPT on fine VELLUM, of the sixteenth century, of FRENCH execution. Written in Gothic letters on 22 leaves. The first leaf contains a miniature of a scribe writing at his desk, surrounded by a border on which, on a gold background, are depicted flowers, fruit, and insects; the second page is surrounded by a border of similar nature, within which the text commences by a name, "Fran. Peipsal," painted on a red and gold background; on the margins of each of the other pages are representations in colors of insects, flowers, etc.; numerous illuminated initial letters — the entire illuminations and illustrations being executed with the utmost delicacy.

Sq. 12°; bound by LEWIS in smooth morocco extra, gilt back, gilt borders on sides, gilt edges; inside smooth morocco lining, richly tooled in gilt, to first cover; a side of the original old stamped leather binding inserted inside back cover. In crimson morocco Solander case.

Accompanying the book is an interesting 5-page Autograph Letter of T. F. DIBDIN, dated July 9, 1828, which says of the book: "The insects and the birds are beyond all imitation! . . . I will challenge the minutest examination," etc.

640 SUETONIUS.— Caii Suetonii Tranqvilli de Vita duodecim Cesarvm. MANUSCRIPT on Vellum, of the fifteenth century. Beautifully and clearly written on 224 pages, in Roman letter. Three-quarters of the first page surrounded by an ornamental border in colors and gold, with illuminated initial. Twelve other small initial letters, illuminated in gold and colors, scattered through the volume. A small portion of the blank margin of three leaves has been torn, but is very skillfully repaired.

Folio (size 10⅛ by $7\frac{3}{16}$ inches); bound by Matthews in brown crushed levant morocco extra, gilt back and top. In chamois-lined pull-off case.

Folio; bound in brown morocco extra, with elaborate tooling in GROLIER style, inside panel of maroon morocco, gilt edges, by HARDY.

THE FIRST EDITION. The estimation in which Peter Martyr was held as an historian is shown by the fact that in a period of a hundred years his works were published in Spain, Italy, France, and England. An Italian by birth, he went in 1487 to the Court of Ferdinand and Isabella. He served in their armies during two campaigns, was ordained a priest afterward, and became tutor to their children. He was at one time an Ambassador, and later on a Privy Counsellor. Few men have had a wider range of occupation and experience. Soldier, schoolmaster, ambassador, statesman, priest, historian, and a gossiping man of letters, he touched humanity at nearly every point. He delighted in the society of great men and was on the most frank and intimate terms with them. To use an expression of his own, he fed with his learning the studious youth of Spain. He was the contemporary of Columbus and Vespucius, and was the first to publish a popular account of the results of their voyages and of the peculiarities of the natives of the New World. This, the first of his historical writings, contains only the first decade, which was republished, together with the second and third, at Alcala, in 1516. Its importance is equaled by its rarity. Harrisse cites but one copy in this country. This copy is from the Barlow Collection, and is the only one which has been offered at public sale in a generation. It is deserving, in every respect, of the regard of scholars and bibliophiles. As the colophon states, it was printed "with the greatest care." It contains the chart which is usually wanting, and which is remarkably correct for the period. Nothing equal to it appeared for a long time after. The volume is bound in a manner worthy of its contents, and it heads fittingly a list of Martyr's works which is equaled only by one other private collection in this country — that of JOHN CARTER BROWN of Providence.

Sm. folio; bound by NIEDRÉE in crimson crushed morocco, sides blind tooled, gilt edges. The inner margin of the title-page has been mended.

"This edition of the first three Decades of Peter Martyr is little known even to the most diligent bibliographers. Brunet mentions an edition of Madrid, 1516, as being noticed in the catalogue of the College of Clermont, which is probably the same book as this, the dedication of Charles V. being dated from Madrid, October, 1516."—Bibliotheca Grenvilliana.

This copy is complete, although it does not contain the sixteen folios of the "Legationis Babylonicæ" mentioned by Brunet as being bound with the Grenville copy. That they are not an essential part of the book as originally published is shown by the "Finis" at the end of the Third Decade and by the "Errata." The volume is exceedingly rare. Harrisse knew of but two copies in this country.

Sm. folio; bound in brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by F. BEDFORD.

The FIRST EDITION of the Eight Decades. This volume ranks next in interest, value, and rarity to the edition of 1511. It is admirably printed in Roman type, with engraved capitals. Sometimes a map has been found at the end, but there is no reason to believe that it appeared in the work as originally issued. Brunet makes no mention of it. The map referred to is the same as that in the Solinus Camers of 1520, with the date changed to 1530. It has some words in Dutch which indicate that it was not intended for publication with this book. The present copy is perfect and in unexceptionable condition. It is excessively rare. Neither Field, Menzies, Brinley, nor Barlow had a copy, and that in the Murphy Collection was not perfect.

This MAGNIFICENT LARGE PAPER COPY, measuring 14½ inches by 9¼ inches on the leaf, is ABSOLUTELY PERFECT in every particular, including the MAP, two leaves of "BOOKS Printed for Tho. Parkhurſt," and a FACSIMILE reproduction of the two excessively rare leaves of ERRATA, of which a few copies only were privately printed for MR. CHARLES DEANE of Boston. This copy is considered to stand unsurpassed in beauty of CONDITION and probably in point of SIZE.

669 MATHER (COTTON).—The TERROR of the LORD. Some Account of the EARTHQUAKE That shook NEW-ENGLAND, In the Night, Between the 29 and the 30 of October, 1727. With a Speech Made unto the Inhabitants of Boston, the Next Morning. BOSTON: 1727.

670 MATHER (INCREASE).—A | BRIEF HISTORY | OF THE | WARR | With the INDIANS in | NEVV ENGLAND. | (From June 24, 1675. when the firſt English-man was mur- | dered by the Indians, to Auguſt 12, 1676. when Philip, alias | Metacomet the principal Author and Beginner | of the Warr, was ſlain.) | Wherein the Grounds, Beginning, and Progreſs of the Warr | is ſummarily expreſſed. | TOGETHER WITH A SERIOUS | EXHORTATION | to the Inhabitants of that Land, By INCREASE MATHER, Teacher of a Church of | Chriſt, in Boſton in New England. | [Quotations, 8 lines.] BOSTON: Printed and Sold by John Foſter over | againſt the Sign of the Dove. 1676.

Sm. 4°; bound in half russia.

This copy agrees with that described in the Brinley Catalogue (No. 948) excepting the transposition of the two parts and the absence of the title to "A Brief History." Concerning the rarity of the volume, Mr. J. H. Trumbull writes in that catalogue as follows: "No epithet can be too strong to characterize the scarcity of the one introuvable which so long escaped the search of American collectors; so rare, that Prince did not secure it for his New England Library, though he could pick up half a dozen Bay Psalm Books; so rare that S. G. Drake, the most indefatigable and successful of collectors, could not find it for his reprint, in 1862, and was obliged to copy even his title-page from the London edition; and so rare that Mr. Sabin himself, when noting the fact (in the Menzies Catalogue) that 'the New England edition is not mentioned by Lowndes, nor elsewhere, so far as we have been able to ascertain,' makes the reluctant admission that 'perhaps no copy of it exists.'"

671 MATHER (INCREASE).—A | Brief History | of The | WARR | With the Indians in New England, &c. Boston: 1676.

Sm. 4°; bound in green levant morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford.

This copy has the title-page which is lacking in the preceding number. A portion of the page is in facsimile, but if it were in that number it would make a copy as nearly perfect as one could expect to find of such a rare book. As this volume is handsomely bound by Bedford it has not seemed wise to mutilate it by extracting the title-page. It does not contain the "Exhortation."

CANTABRIGIÆ: | Apud Thomam Buck & Rogerum Daniel, celeberrimæ | Academiæ typographos, 1638.

Sm. 4°; bound in dark blue morocco extra, delicately gilt on sides and back, gilt edges, by BEDFORD. THE FIRST EDITION.

This volume is divided into two parts. The first contains an account of KING in Latin printed in capitals, supposed by some to have been written by Milton, and Latin and Greek tributes. The second part contains the English tributes, and is separated from the first by a distinct title surrounded by heavy black borders: "Obsequies to | the memorie | of | Mr. Edward | King, | Anno Dom. | 1638. | Printed by Th. Buck and R. Daniel, | printers to the Universitie of | Cambridge. 1638.

"Lycidas" comes last in order, and fittingly crowns this remarkable collection of elegies. It is not signed in full, but bears the initials of MILTON. It is the first edition of this celebrated composition, and is extremely rare. A copy brought at Sotheby's, in 1881, £68. It is believed that no copy has since been offered at public sale.

This copy is complete in every way, and is in absolutely perfect condition.

701 MILTON (JOHN).—Paradise lost. | A | POEM | Written in | TEN BOOKS | By JOHN MILTON. | Licensed and Entered according | to Order. | LONDON | Printed, and are to be sold by Peter Parker, | under Creed Church neer Aldgate; And by | Robert Boulter at the Turks Head in Bishopsgate-street; | And Matthias Walker, under St. Dunstons Church | in Fleet Street, 1667.

Sm. 4°; bound in dark blue morocco, with border of five fillets on sides, gilt edges. FIRST EDITION, and with the FIRST TITLE-PAGE.

The arguments of the ten books, a note on "The Verse," and a list of "Errata," all of the edition of 1668, have been added. Two portraits of Milton, one by Faithorne, the other by Vertue, have been inserted before the title-page. This copy is from the library of the late R. S. Turner, and has his "E-LIBRIS."

Sm. 4°; bound in green crushed morocco extra, gilt edges, by PRATT.

Mourt's "Relation" is another of those books usually catalogued as "the chief cornerstone" of a library of Americana, and as it is one of the earliest accounts of New England history it is not easy to overestimate its importance. But its value is not greater than the difficulty of procuring the book in good condition. It was evidently very popular at the time of its publication, and received careless usage. Not one thoroughly good copy has been offered for sale here, either at auction or by dealers, for twenty years. The present is an unusually clean copy, but the top of the title-page has been cut so close as to eliminate the initial "A."

Sm. 4°; 79 leaves, sign. A–N, with 54 exceedingly curious woodcuts. Oak boards, covered with sheepskin, and tooled in the style of the sixteenth century.

"Thomas Murner, a learned Minorite friar of the order of St. Francis who flourished at the commencement of the sixteenth century, and being engaged in teaching philosophy, first at Cracovia, and afterwards at Friburg, perceived that his young pupils were disgusted with the formalities of a treatise of Logic which was placed in their hands to teach them the terms of dialectic science. He imagined a new method of exciting their attention by composing one himself, in the manner of a Game at Cards, which, in the form of a pleasing recreation, engaged them to pursue the subject, and insensibly surmount the difficulties of this dry and repulsive study. So successful were his endeavours, that the extraordinary and rapid progress of his scholars caused him at first to be suspected as a magician; and, to justify himself, he was obliged to produce his new invented game, and demonstrate to the rectors of the University the means by which such wonders were effected, who not only highly approved, but applauded his invention, and admired it, as something more than human. This game, according to Menestrier, was composed of 52 cards on which were depicted Bells, Crabs, Fish, Acorns, Scorpions, Turbans, Hearts, Swallows, Suns, Stars, Pigeons, Crescents, Cats, Shields, Crowns, and Serpents; but in what manner these objects were applied to the inculcation of logical rules and dialectic terms, we shall not attempt to describe. The success and popularity of this book gave rise at a future period to numerous applications of Cards for purposes of instruction; that Murner's attempt was the model upon which all subsequent ones were founded, cannot be doubted, and the number of games which were published in the commencement of the seventeenth century is astonishing. We have seen the attempt renewed in our own times, and there is scarcely a branch of juvenile education which has not been thus treated."—Marchand, "Dict. Historique," art. Murner. Sm. folio; bound in green morocco extra, leather joints, gilt edges, by Roger Payne.

This is the First Edition of this book, which has held for centuries a prominent place in classical literature. Aside from its literary merit, the present copy has an especial charm for the lover of excellent typography. The paper is an unusually good specimen of the work of the fifteenth century, and is as fresh and free from stain as if it had been made within a few years. The ink is lustrous, the registry perfect, and the margins wide. The capital letters are, as usual, painted by hand. But the most attractive feature of the book is, perhaps, the first page. This has been illuminated most beautifully in water-color, by an Italian artist. At the bottom of the page is a spirited picture of a battle between ancient galleys propelled by oars. This, like the remainder of the book, is in perfect preservation.

From the libraries of Sir M. Sykes and M. Wodhull.

727 NEW-ENGLAND PRIMER.— The | New-England | PRIMER | Improved. | For the more eaſy attaining the true | Reading of Engliſh. | To which is added, | The Aſſembly of Divines, | and Mr. Cotton's | Catechiſm. | Boston: Printed and Sold | by S. Adams, in Queen-ſtreet, 1762.

32°; 40 unnumbered leaves. On the recto of the first leaf is a large woodcut portrait of "King George the Third, Crown'd September 22d, 1761." The 24 woodcuts illustrative of the alphabet, and the familiar rhymed couplets, are remarkably fresh and clean. The impressive cut representing Mr. John Rogers burning at the stake, in the presence of his pious and prolific wife,

"with nine small children and one at her breast," will be found on the verso of the fifteenth leaf. This copy contains Mr. John Cotton's "Spiritual Milk | for | AMERICAN Babes. | Drawn out of the Breaſts of both Teſtaments, | for their Souls Nouriſhment"; "A DIALOGUE [in verse] betweeu CHRIST, Youth, and the Devil"; and ends with, "The late Reverend & Venerable Mr. Nathanael Clap, of Newport on Rhod-Iſland; his Advice to Children." A VERY FINE, CLEAN COPY OF AN EXTREMELY RARE EDITION, in the original split boards and sheep binding.

"THE LITTLE BIBLE OF NEW-ENGLAND." The late Mr. George Livermore, a diligent and successful collector of early Catechisms and Primers, remarks, in one of a series of articles on "The Origin and History of the New England Primer," published in the "Cambridge Chronicle" in 1849: "I have not been able to find a copy of the work bearing an earlier date than the year 1775. . . Nor have I seen a person who has seen a copy of an earlier date." The Lenox Library contains a copy bearing the date of the year 1727. See Brinley Catalogue, PART III., p. 159.

Folio; bound in green levant morocco extra, borders elaborately tooled, by Pratt.

The First Edition of Oviedo's "General and Natural History of the Indies," printed at Seville in 1535. Oviedo lived on this continent upwards of thirty-four years, and crossed the Atlantic not less than twelve times, chiefly on missions to lay the grievances of the colonies, or his own, before the Spanish Court. He was Governor of the Province of Carthagena, and filled other high positions. His intimate personal knowledge of men and events makes his history interesting and of the greatest importance. This volume is complete in itself, although it comprises only the first part of the history, which was continued subsequently. The present copy is perfect, and is in fine condition, excepting that a few leaves have been mended. The work is, however, excessively rare in any state.

4°; bound in vellum, with Wodhull arms in gold on the side.

This is the FIRST EDITION of Petrarch's Sonnets and Triumphs. Its extraordinary rarity has been noticed by all bibliographers. De Bure states that not a single copy of it could be found in Paris. Dibdin describes it as "this exceedingly precious volume: among the most beautiful, as well as the rarest, of those executed by Vindelin de Spira." This copy is complete and perfect, with the exception that the Table and four leaves have been inlaid. The initial letters are illuminated in gold and colors, and the first page has the Arms of Veniero, with two boys sitting beneath trees.

792 PINDAR.— The WORKS of PINDAR. Venice: 1513.

Colophon:

Venetiis in aedib. Aldi, et Andreæ Asulani Soceri, Mense Januario M.D.XIII.

Sm. 8°; bound in old calf, sprinkled edges.

The First Edition. It is the first book in which numbers instead of letters were used to designate signatures. Another variation from custom is found in the numbering of the pages. All of the figures are printed on the right of the page, making the even numbers come close to the inside margin while the odd numbers are on the outside. This copy is perfect and in excellent condition.

793 PLATO.— The COMPLETE WORKS of PLATO, in Greek. Venice: 1513.

Colophon:

VENETIIS IN AEDIB. ALDI, ET ANDREAE SOCERI MENSE SEPTEMBRI. M.D.XIII.

Folio; bound in blue morocco extra, gilt qauffered edges, anchor stamped in gold on sides.

The First Edition of Plato's works, and one of the most beautiful and important productions of the Aldine press. It was dedicated by Aldus and Musurus to Leo X., who was so much pleased with the work that he renewed the privileges already granted to Aldus by Alexander VI. and Julius II. This copy is ruled throughout in red, and is perfect and in irreproachable condition. It is from the Syston Park Library.

794 PLATO.— The DIALOGUES of PLATO, Translated into English, with Analyses and Introductions, by B. JOWETT, M. A. New York: Scribner, Armstrong & Co. 1873.

4 vols. 8°; brown cloth.

795 PLAUTUS.— COMEDIÈS. PLAUTI COMŒDIÆ EMENDATÆ per Georgium Alexandrinum. Venice: Printed by John de Colonia and Vindelin de Spira, 1472.

Colophon:

VENETIIS. M.CCCC.LXXII. Nicolao Throno Principe iucundissimo & Duce foelicissimo.

Folio; bound in olive crimped morocco, with wide borders blind tooled, leather joints, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, with Arms of Sir. M. Sykes in gold on sides.

The First Edition of the Comedies of Plautus. Dibdin speaks of it as "this rare and magnificent impression," and De Bure states that the greater number of copies of this first edition in Paris were imperfect. This copy is perfect, and in beautiful condition. It is from the Syston Park Library.

796 PLINY.— HISTORIA NATURALIS. VENETIIS: Joannes de Spira, 1469.

COLOPHON:

Quem modo tam rarum cupiens uix lector haber &:

Restituit Venetiis me nuper Spira Ioannes:
Exscripsitq; libros ęre notante meos.
Fessa manus quondam moneo: Calamusq; quiescat.
Nanq; labor studio cessit: & ingenio.

M.CCCC.LXVIIII.

Folio; bound in old French citron morocco, borders of gold, gilt edges.

Of this, the FIRST EDITION of PLINY'S Natural History, DIBDIN writes: "There are few productions of ancient printing more interesting than the present one; whether we consider the magnificence of its execution, the importance of the publication, or the interest excited by the printer of it." JOHN DE SPIRA published but three works, of which this is the second. It is a noble volume of about 700 pages, and according to the testimony of the printer's brother it was executed within the almost incredibly short time of three months. The same authority states that only one hundred copies were struck off.

Blank spaces are left for the passages in Greek to be written in by hand, but in some places the Greek is printed in Roman letter, as in the following curious example, which will be found on the verso of the 79th leaf, BOOK VIth, fifth line from the bottom:

"Xaxilipcui carnece comai coe kpturae trata una ciezica."

The present copy is perfect and in unexceptionable condition. The capital letters throughout are put in by hand. The initial letters of the several books are beautifully illuminated in gold and colors, that on the first page being 3½ inches by 3 inches in dimension. It is from the Syston Park Library.

797 PLUTARCH'S LIVES.— The TRANSLATION CALLED DRYDEN'S. Corrected from the Greek and Revised by A. H. CLOUGH. BOSTON: Little, Brown & Company, 1878.

The most interesting feature of this volume is its beautiful binding. The design on the sides represents the arms of the Palatinate of Bavaria in a graceful round cartouche in the center. A wide border surrounds the four sides of the cover. The royal ball, the lion, and the "fusel" (arms of Bavaria) are found successively in the small cartouches of the border. The back is elaborately tooled, and bears the interlaced letters "B. M." with royal crown gracefully worked into monograms.

The elaborate and yet delicate dentelle border on the doublure fittingly completes a binding worthy of any master. Unfortunately, the name of the binder is not to be found on the book. The volume was bound for Marie Hollandine, princess of the Palatinate of Bavaria, who died in 1709, abbess of Maubuisson.

822 PTOLEMÆUS. — PTOLEMÆI COSMOGRAPHIA. VICENCIÆ: 1475.

COLOPHON:

En tibi lector Cosmographia Ptolemæi ab Hermano lenilapide Coloniensi. | VICENCIÆ accuratissime impressa. Benedicto Triuisano: & Angelo Michaele præsidibus. | M. CCCC. LXXV. IDI. SEPT.

Folio; bound in calf, gilt edges, with Ducal arms (six fleurs-de-lis) in gold on sides.

The FIRST EDITION of Ptolemy's Cosmography, a book which was so popular that more than a score of editions were published in the hundred years following its first appearance. The maps, which are an important feature of the subsequent editions, did not appear in this.

The present copy is perfect, and is in fine condition. The capitals are all put in by hand, and the initial letters are illuminated in gold and colors. The first page has, in addition, a border and the arms of Bandini.

On fol.* 63A is a full-page woodcut, containing 25 figures of Animals, Birds, and Fish; and on fol. 67B is a chess-board with all the pieces in position. The large woodcut on the verso of fol. 63 has the revolving fish-shaped pointer, which is made to turn round by means of a thread in the middle. In most copies this unique figure is wanting. Elegantly bound in pure white vellum, gilt back and edges. A LARGE AND EXCEEDINGLY BEAUTIFUL COPY OF THIS CURIOUS, INTERESTING, AND UNCOMMON VOLUME. FIRST EDITION.

"The manner in which it is executed by the printer is equal to the singularity of its contents; and it is rarely that we see a more elegant specimen of the roman type of Ratdolt. Indeed, no type of any printer, whether gothic or roman, can exceed, in neatness of form, or skillfulness of execution, that which the printer of this volume may fairly boast to have produced."— Dibdin, "Bibl. Spenceriana," Vol. III., p. 486.

The collation agrees with LOWNDES except in the position of the Map of Virginia, which in this copy is placed between pages 1692–3, instead of pages 1836–7.

Mr. Quaritch says that only three copies are known which have the correct (or double) map on page 65 of Vol. I. In this copy the map is placed as in the three referred to by him.

A BEAUTIFUL COPY OF THE RARE ENGLISH EDITION, with fine portrait of RABELAIS, and the numerous curious plates from the French edition inserted.

"It is to RABELAIS that satiric fiction is most deeply indebted. Born at the close of the fifteenth century, when the antagonizing elements of barbarism and civilization were most prominently brought forward to struggle for mastery, Rabelais early embraced the course of modern improvement against the hereditary nonsense which then and now was dignified with the title of 'Wisdom of our Ancestors.' The state, the church, the various professions, were filled with solemn blockheads or designing knaves, who looked like owls, chattered like parrots, and plundered like ravens. Rabelais was just the man to flutter this precious system of ornithology; he had been himself the inmate of the rookeries. An analysis of this immortal work would be of inconvenient length, and after all would displease those acquainted with the great original, and convey no adequate notion of its merits to those enviable persons by whom it is yet unread. There are many pleasures which can be enjoyed only once in this world: the first reading of Rabelais is one of them."—DR. W. C. TAYLOR, Essay on Satirical Fiction, p. 54.

"THE 'History of Reynard the Fox' is one of the earliest and best specimens of satirical romance in the literature of modern Europe. It is admired in youth, and relished in age. The characters are drawn with great discrimination, and sustained with equal spirit; the satires on tyranny, roguery, superstition, and hypocrisy are powerful and pointed. Antiquarians have not settled the precise age or country to which the work belongs, but there is an individuality in the portraits which forces us to believe that they must be resemblances, though we are not acquainted with the originals."—DR. W. C. TAYLOR, Essay on Satirical Fiction, p. 54.

The foregoing nine volumes are all, with the exception of Vols. I. and II. of "Modern Painters," FIRST EDITIONS. As those volumes have no illustrations, the later editions of them, containing the author's revisions, are generally regarded as the more desirable. They were selected carefully many years ago, and are in the finest possible condition. The impressions of the beautiful drawings of Ruskin and Turner are delicate and brilliant, and, that they may be seen to better advantage, the plates are mounted on guards. Notwithstanding the vagaries of Ruskin's later days, these volumes, written in his prime, will remain as a lasting proof of his wonderful genius. No other author of the century has written of nature and art with so much enthusiasm and intelligence, and at the same time illustrated his work with such exquisite drawings by his own hand. The binding is an excellent example of Zaehnsdorf's work in his best days, and the volumes are throughout in the finest possible condition.

This book contains 108 leaves in Roman letters, without marks, having 27 lines to a full page. It is believed to be the third book printed in Spain, and THE FIRST BOOK ISSUED IN OCTAVO FORM FROM ANY PRESS. Its rarity is such that Brunet could cite but two copies. It is not in Lord Spencer's library. It measures 8½ x 5⅜ in. As a specimen of typographical skill it is not remarkable, and does not compare favorably with the work of the early Italian printers. It came from the Sunderland Library, Blenheim Palace, and is perfect and in good condition.

"SAYBROOK PLATFORM."

"In 1709, this town was honoured by a convention of contending independent divines, who were pleased with no constitution in church or state. This multitude of sectarians, after long debates, published a book, called, 'The Saybrook Platform,' containing the doctrines and rules of the churches in Connecticut. The only novelty in this system is, that Christ has delegated his miniſterial, kingly, and prophetical power, one half to the people and the other half to the ministers. This proposition may be thought in Europe a very strange one; but if it be recollected that the people in the province claimed all power in heaven and on earth, and that the ministers had no other ordination than what came from the people, it will appear that the ministers hereby gained from the people one half of their power. From this article originated the practice of the right hand of fellowship at the ordination of a minister. No one can be a minister till he receives the right hand of the messenger who represents six deacons from six congregations. The conclusion of this reverend and venerable body is, 'The Bible is our rule.'"—See PETERS'S "General Hist. of Connecticut," Lond. 1781, 8° ; pp. 142–3.

"Previous to 1708, the 'Cambridge Platform' had been the general plan of church fellowship and discipline in New England. Divers opinions had long existed as to the policy and efficacy of some of its provisions and omissions. In obedience to repeated requests and memorials, the Legislature, at their May session, 1708, passed an act requiring the ministers and churches of Connecticut to meet and form an ecclesiastical constitution. They accordingly assembled at Saybrook, on the 9th day of September, 1708, and after due deliberation adopted the celebrated 'Saybrook Platform,' together with a confession of faith. A uniform standard of faith and action being thus agreed upon, a period of harmony and good feeling followed, such as had not been before experienced for many years."—HOLLISTER, "Hist. of Conn.," Vol. I., p. 468.

Folio; bound in green morocco extra, leather joints, tooled with fillets and ornaments, gilt edges. The arms of a former owner are stamped in gold on the sides. The two parts complete in one volume of 252 leaves.

The First Edition of Seneca's works, and, with the exception of the Horace of 1474, of which but one copy is known, the most important production of the early press at Naples. Dibdin says of it, "This edition exhibits the grandest specimen of the Roman type of Moravus with which I am acquainted." This copy is perfect and in exceptionally beautiful condition. The margins are very wide, the paper is unusually good, and all the capitals are painted by hand.

The EARTHQUAKE is thus described by Prince in the Preface to his Sermons: "On the night after the Lord's Day, Octob. 29, about 40 Minutes paſt X, in a calm & serene Hour, the Town of BOSTON was on a sudden extreamely surpriz'd with the most violent Shock of an EARTHQUAKE that has been known among us. It came on with a loud hollow Noise like the Roaring of a Great fired Chimney, but incomparably more fierce & terrible. In about half a minute the Earth began to heave and tremble. The Shock increasing, rose to the Hight in about a minute more, when the Moveables, Doors, Windows, Walls, especially in the upper Chambers, made a very fearful Clattering, and the Houses rock'd & crackl'd, as if they were all dissolving and falling to pieces. The people asleep were awakened with the greatest astonishment: many others affrighted run into the Streets for Safety. But the Shaking quickly abated, and in another half Minute intirely ceased.

"The Noise & Shakes seem'd to come from the Northwestward, and to go off Southeasterly; and so the Houses seemed to reel. Some Damage was done to the more brittle sort of Moveables, and some Bricks on the Tops of some Chimneys fell; but not an House was broken, nor a Creature hurt. At several times till Day-light, were heard some distant Rumblings, and some fainter Shocks were felt: But since, the Earth has been quiet in Town, tho' the minds of many continue very greatly & justly affected."

THE WORKS OF WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE.

887 SHAKESPEARE (WILLIAM).—A | Midsommer nights | dreame. | As it hath beene sundry times pub- | likely acted, by the Right Honoura- | able, the Lord Chamberlaine his | seruants. | VVritten by VVilliam Shakespeare. | [Device.] Printed by James Roberts, 1600.

Sm. 4°; bound in red morocco, elaborately tooled, gilt edges, by Hayday.

This, according to Lowndes and Brunet, is the First Edition. Formerly, another edition, also printed in 1600, was regarded by commentators as the first. Mr. Halliwell, however, has proved, according to Brunet, that the present edition is not only the first but is more correct than the other.

This copy is perfect and in fine condition. Its rarity requires no comment.

888 SHAKESPEARE (WILLIAM).— M. VVilliam Shake-speare, | his | True Chronicle History of the life | and death of King Lear, and his | three daughters. | With the unfortunate life of Edgar, | Sonne and heire to the Earl of Glocester, and | his sullen and assumed humour of TOM | of Bedlam. | As it was plaid before the Kings Maiesty at White-Hall, up- | pon S. Stephen's night, in Christmas Hollidaies. | By his Maiesties Seruants, playing vsually at the | Globe on the Banck-side. [Device.] Printed for Nathaniel Butter. | 1608.

Sm. 4°; bound in maroon morocco, with arms on sides.

This is the Second Edition of this Play. It presents the usual variety of readings. An instance occurs on the recto of H2, where we read: "My foote usurpes my head." In some copies of the First Edition this line is found as here. But in others it is: "A foole usurps my bed." And the first folio has it thus: "My foole usurpes my body."

889 SHAKESPEARE (WILLIAM).— THE MOST | excellent | And Lamentable Tragedie, | of Romeo and | Ivliet. | As it has beene sundrie times publikely Acted, | by the Kings Maiesties Seruants | at the Globe. | Written by W. Shake-speare. | Newly corrected, augmented, and amended. [Device.] London, | Printed for Iohn Smethwicke, and are to bee sold at his shop in | Saint Dunstanes Church-yard, in Fleetestreete | vnder the Dyall.

Sm. 4°; in half binding.

This edition has no date. It seems probable, however, that it preceded or followed by a short time the edition of 1609. The title-pages have the same words The fact that this ends on L4, and that of 1609 on M2, would seem to indicate that this is the earlier edition, as the tendency was to "augment" the volumes. The present was Utterson's copy, which is mentioned by Lowndes. Mr. Dyce says this edition contains some important various readings.

890 SHAKESPEARE (WILLIAM).—THE | Famous Historie of | Troylus and Cresseid. | Excellently expressing the beginning | of their loues, with the conceited wooing | of Pandarus, Prince of Licia. | Written by William Shakespeare. | [Small device.] London, | Imprinted by G. Eld for R. Bonian and H. Walley and | are to be Sold at the Spred Eagle in Paules | Church-yeard, ouer against the | great North doore. | 1609.

Sm. 4°; bound in crimson morocco extra, fillets on sides, gilt edges, by F. Bedford.

The First Edition.

The preface contains the words, "for so much as will make you thinke your testerne well bestowd," which Lowndes regards as proof that these quartos were issued originally at the price of a "tester," or sixpence. Like all of the First Editions, it is exceedingly rare.

891 SHAKESPEARE (WILLIAM).—A | Most pleasant and ex | cellent Conceited Comedy, | of Sir John Falstaffe, and the merry VViues of VVindsor. |

VVith the swaggering vaine of An- | cient Pistoll, and Corporall Nym. |

Written by W. Shakespeare.

[Device.]

Printed for Arthur Johnson, 1619.

Sm. 4°. In the original paper covers.

The Second Edition. This volume is not unlikely to be to the admirers of Shakespeare the most interesting of all the quartos. It presents the play in a form which differs greatly from that of succeeding editions. As it now stands it appeared first in the folio in 1623. The copy in the folio contains nearly twice the number of lines that are to be found in the quarto.

The condition of the volume is most rare and attractive. It is just as originally published, and is large, clean, and perfect.

892 SHAKESPEARE (WILLIAM).—The | TRAGEDIE | of | King Richard The | Third. | Contayning his treacherous Plots against | his brother Clarence: The pittifull murder of his innocent | Nephewes: his tyrannicall Vsurpation: with the whole | course of his detested life, and most | deserved death. | As it hath been lately Acted by the Kings Maiesties | Seruants. | Newly augmented | by William Shake-speare. | [Device.] London, | Printed by Thomas Purfoot, and are to be sold by Mathew Law, dwelling | in Pauls Church-yard, at the Signe of the Foxe, neere | S. Austines gate, 1622.

Sm. 4°; bound in plain red morocco, with arms on sides.

This, like all the quartos which appeared before the first folio, is interesting as showing the various readings. These are more numerous than is generally supposed. The first line of the play in this edition reads, "Now is the winter of discontent," instead of "Now is the winter of our discontent," as in the folio. So on the next page "good fathers" appears for "Godfathers." Similar variations occur frequently.

893 SHAKESPEARE (WILLIAM).— Mr. William | SHAKESPEARES | Comedies, | Histories, & | Tragedies. | Published according to the True Originall Copies.

[Large Portrait of Shakespeare. Martin Droeshout, sculpsit, London.]

London | Printed by Isaac Iaggard and Ed. Blount, 1623.

Folio; bound in crimson morocco extra, by Bedford.

The First Edition, containing thirty-six plays, seventeen of which appeared here for the first time. The increasing estimation in which this volume is held by the public is shown by its steady and rapid advance in price. It was published at one pound sterling, but several copies have brought within a few years from $4000 to $6000, and the demand seems to be always in excess of the supply The portrait by Droeshout and the verses by Ben. Jonson appeared first in this edition and subsequently in those published in 1632, 1664, and 1685. To find both of them in as good state as they are here is rare, even in the most expensive copies. The verses are as follows:

To the Reader.

This Figure, that thou here seest put,
It was for gentle Shakespeare cut;
Wherein the Grauer had a strife
VVith Nature, to out-doo the life:
O, could he but have drawne his vvit
As well in brasse, as he hath hit
His face; the Print vvould then surpasse
All, that vvas euer vvrit in brasse.
But, since he cannot, Reader, looke
Not on his Picture, but his Booke. B. I.

The present copy measures 12$\frac{3}{16}$ by 7$\frac{15}{16}$ inches. It is perfect and in excellent condition. The collation conforms in every respect to that given in Lowndes' Manual, except that the preliminary leaves are differently arranged.

894 SHAKESPEARE (WILLIAM). — Mr. William | SHAKESPEARES | Comedies, | Histories, and | Tragedies. | Published according to the true Originall Copies. | The Second Impression. [Large Portrait of Shakespeare. Martin Droeshout, sculpsit, London.] London, Printed by Tho. Cotes, for Robert Allot, and are to be Sold at the Signe | of the Blacke Beare in Pauls Church-Yard, 1632.

Folio; bound in crimson morocco extra, by Bedford.

There are at least six variations of the title-page of this the Second Edition. One copy is known in which the word is spelt Coppies. There were several proprietors of this edition, and each seems to have had a title printed with his own name. The text is regarded as valuable on account of its various readings, the editorial care bestowed on it, and the correction of some of the more palpable typographical errors of the first folio.

This copy is perfect and in fine condition, with the exceptions that the verses are inlaid and the margins of the title and last leaf are mended. The collation conforms in every respect to that given by Lowndes. The volume measures 12¼ by 8½ inches.

895 SHAKESPEARE (WILLIAM).

POEMS: | VVRITTEN | BY |

WIL. SHAKE-SPEARE | Gent. |

[Device.]

Printed at LONDON by Tho. Cotes, and are | to be sold by John Benson, dwelling in | S.t Dunstans Church-yard, 1640.

12°; bound in crimson morocco extra, with arms on sides, gilt edges, by BEDFORD.

A portrait of Shakespeare, signed "W. M. sculpsit" (W. Marshall), faces the first title-page. A second title-page forms the fifth leaf. The omission of the date on the second title is the only difference between the two. On L2 commences a head title: "An addition of some Excellent Poems, to those precedent, of Renowned Shakespeare, By other Gentlemen."

The impression of the portrait is brilliant, and the condition of the volume generally is such as to please the most fastidious taste. Its rarity in this form is excessive.

896 SHAKESPEARE (WILLIAM).— M.r WILLIAM | SHAKESPEAR'S | Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies. | Published according to the true Original Copies. | The third Impression. | And unto this Impression is added seven Playes, never | before Printed in Folio. | viz. |

Pericles Prince of Tyre.
The London Prodigall.
The History of Thomas L.d Cromwell.
Sir John Oldcastle Lord Cobham.
The Puritan Widow.
A York-shire Tragedy.
The Tragedy of Locrine.

[Device.]

LONDON: Printed for P. C. 1664.

Folio; bound in crimson morocco extra, by BEDFORD.

Of the seven additional plays which appeared for the first time in this the Third Edition, only one, "Pericles," has been retained, all the others being regarded as spurious.

On the fly-leaf is the following note: "This copy of the third (and very rare) edition of our great dramatic Poet, formerly belonged to John Kemble, Esq., and was purchased by me at the sale of his books in 1820–21, for the sum of eight guineas, it then wanting the portrait, which I have since supplied."—E. V. U(TTERSON). But this portrait, according to Lowndes, belongs to the Fourth instead of the Third Edition. The principal difference is that Shakespeare is spelled with the final e in the latter and without it in the former. With this exception, and that of the skillful mending of the title-page, the present volume is perfect, and in fine, clean condition. It measures 12⅝ by 8½ inches. It is from the libraries of John Philip Kemble, E. V. Utterson, and Sir Wm. Tite. In point of rarity it ranks next to the First Edition.

897 SHAKESPEARE (WILLIAM).— M.r WILLIAM SHAKESPEAR'S | COMEDIES, | HISTORIES, | and | TRAGEDIES. | Published according to the true

Original Copies. | Unto which is added, SEVEN | PLAYS, | Never before Printed in Folio: | viz. |

Pericles Prince of Tyre.
The London Prodigal.
The History of Thomas Lord Cromwel.
Sir John Oldcastle Lord Cobham.
The Puritan Widow.
A Yorkshire Tragedy.
The Tragedy of Locrine.

The Fourth Edition.

[Small Device.]

LONDON: | Printed for H. Herringman, E. Brewster, and R. Bentley, at the Anchor in the | New Exchange, the Crane in St. Pauls Church-Yard, and in | Russel-Street Covent-Garden, 1685.

Folio; bound in crimson morocco extra, by BEDFORD.

In this, the Fourth Edition, the original portrait was used, after having been retouched. In this state the shading on the left of the forehead is expressed by crossed lines which bend outwards, while in the original plate the lines curve inwards and are not crossed. Moreover, in the repaired state the hair is crossed instead of being, as in the original, in single lines.

This copy is perfect, and is exceptionally clean and tall, measuring $13\frac{13}{16}$ by $8\frac{3}{4}$ inches.

The four folios above described possess an unusual attraction in their binding. They are bound uniformly in full crimson crushed levant morocco, the sides and backs richly decorated with small tools, with inside panels of green morocco, tooled in a dentelle pattern of exceptional beauty, double fly-leaves, gilt edges. Each volume has a case of olive morocco, lettered. The volumes were given to Mr. Bedford with instructions to spare neither time, trouble, nor money in putting them into the best possible condition. The amount of his bill was such as to justify the belief that he had taken full advantage of the liberty thus conferred. Certainly it would be difficult to find examples of his binding which would excel these in beauty of design or perfection of finish.

Spira premens: artis gloria prima suę.

Folio; bound in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by LORTIC.

The FIRST EDITION. Although the date and place of printing are not stated it is generally believed that this is the first work of Vindelin de Spira, and that it must therefore have been issued in 1469. It is interesting, among other things, as being the first book printed with catchwords. There are numerous marginal notes, written evidently by a scholar. The book is perfect, including even the blank leaves, and is in brilliant condition. All of the initial letters are illuminated by hand. It has the ex libris of Ambrose Firmin-Didot.

8°; pp. xvi.–112; half calf.

This RARE pamphlet contains some very unpleasant particulars of the scandalous conduct of the REV. JOHN WESLEY during his apostolic mission in Savannah. According to these gentlemen, "He was indicted before a Grand Jury of Forty-Four Free-holders, and Thirteen Indictments were found against him; one concerned Mr. Williamson and his Spouse." Mr. WESLEY, it appears, undertook to "pour the leperous distilment" into the ear of this virtuous lady, to the effect that "her husband had no right to regulate her behaviour as to conversing with him." However, as soon as the distinguished apostle heard that these indictments had been found against him, he did not tarry to discuss the question further, but bolted out of the town in the night, fled to Charles-Town, and thence to England. See pages 41, 2, 3, and 48.

IN FINE:

Impreſſum Venetiis characteribus ac studio Aldi Manucii Romani cum gratia &c. M.CCCC.XCV. Mense februario.

Sm. folio; bound in citron morocco, gilt edges, apparently by DÉROME.

This is the FIRST EDITION of the greater part of the works contained in it. Although the book is really divided into two parts, the second of which contains the works of Hesiod, it was published as one volume and is perfect only when in that condition. A portion of the works both of Theocritus and Hesiod appeared in a volume which is generally believed to have been printed at Milan in 1493. It contained but eighteen of the eclogues, whereas this edition has thirty. This also has the entire works of Hesiod. There were two issues of this edition, of which the present copy belongs to the first. Dibdin gives a minute account of the variations. This copy is a beautiful specimen of printing, having large outline headbands and capitals, and extra wide margins. It is perfect and in excellent condition.

This is the First Edition in this form of a book which has been held in high esteem for three hundred years. It contains 507 full-length figures engraved on wood, representing the costumes of men and women from all parts of the world. It has been mentioned usually as "Titian's book," owing, probably, to the fact that the author was a nephew of Titian, to whom were attributed the designs of the engravings. The costumes of the aborigines of America are given on pp. 488–507.

This copy is perfect and in excellent condition.

8°; 6 woodcuts; 36 unnumbered leaves, the Letter of Columbus filling only the last seven and a half. Crimson morocco, paneled sides, gilt edges, by PRATT.

A volume of EXTREME RARITY.

Of the seven early editions known of the Cosco translation of this celebrated Letter of COLUMBUS, only two bear a date. The first part of the work is simply a drama on the capture of Granada from the Moors by Ferdinand.

THE VOYAGES OF AMERICUS VESPUCIUS.

Four voyages are ascribed to Vespucius. The first two were made in 1497 and 1499, in behalf of the King of Spain. The third and fourth were undertaken in 1501 and 1503 for the King of Portugal. He was not the author of the accounts of his voyages which have been transmitted to us; a fact which, probably, explains the existence of the many conflicting statements made in and concerning them. The preponderance of evidence seems to indicate that he landed on the shores of this continent a short time before the Cabots, and a year or more before Columbus. There is no proof that he is directly responsible for the giving of his name to the continent. The second and third voyages alone have been printed separately in the form of plaquettes, all within the first eight years of the sixteenth century. Four of these are described in the numbers immediately following. They are all of the greatest rarity. These copies are perfect and in beautiful condition.

They came from the Barlow Collection.

Harrisse says, in a note accompanying the volume, that he found it in the library of S. Marco, in Venice, in 1867; that he had never seen a copy before; that he bought it after much negotiation; that the only other copies were in the Trivulzio Library in Milan and the Imperial Library of Vienna; that it was not in the British Museum, and that it was not described in the B. A. V. But there is no doubt that it is described, nevertheless, in the B. A. V., No. 30. The description there given is copied by Harrisse from the "Serapeum" for January, 1861, and is exceedingly minute. It corresponds exactly with the collation of this volume, excepting that the title is printed in one line instead of two. A glance at the B. A. V. will be enough to convince any one that no attempt was made to copy the description line for line. It is, perhaps, more rare and valuable than any other of the series.

EXCESSIVELY RARE. The title and last leaf of table in facsimile. The volume contains an original account of the first three voyages of Columbus and of Vespucius's third voyages written by himself and first published in Latin in the year 1504, the only voyage made by him of which there is any account coming from his hands, unless that of the four voyages in the COSMOGRAPHIÆ INTRODUCTIO, also published in 1507, be considered, as it claims to be, his work. Vasco da Gama's first voyage, the voyage of Cabral, and Pasqualigi's account of Caspar Cortereal's first voyage are also found in this the first collection of voyages extant.

The work was republished in 1519 and 1521. The latter edition is said to have some additions.

A copy at the sale of the Bolton Corney Library, in 1871, brought £157. The Beckford copy sold for £270.

The FIRST EDITION. The author of this volume was Waldsee-Müller, or as he chose to call himself, putting his name into Greek form, Hylacomylus. With him originated the idea of calling this continent America. The suggestion appears on the verso of the fifteenth leaf. As his book was very popular, his proposition soon became widely known and was favorably received. The book is as rare as it is important. This copy is perfect in every respect and is in beautiful condition. B. A. V., No. 45.

Sm. 4°; bound in red crushed morocco, gilt edges, by BEDFORD.

The SECOND EDITION. The printer's mark and surrounding words are the same as in the May edition, except that "September" is substituted for "May." The subject matter is the same in both editions. They are of equal rarity. The title-page of this copy has been slightly torn and mended. Otherwise it is an even finer copy than the First Edition. The margins are wider, and many of the initial letters are colored by hand. B. A. V., No. 46.

.M.CCCC.LXX.

Folio; bound in old red morocco, with ornamental gilt borders, gilt edges.

The FIRST EDITION with a date, and, according to De Bure and Crevenna, absolutely the first edition of the works of VIRGIL.

It begins with the well known lines of the Eclogues:

TITYRE. TV PATVLAE
recubans sub tegmine fagi
Silueſtrem tenui muſam meditaris auena.

Then follow the Georgics and the Æneid, the whole occupying 161 leaves, with 41 lines to a full page. There are, in addition, 4 blank leaves. It is printed on VELLUM of fine quality, and has all the marks of care which the early Italian printers bestowed on notable books. The first page is decorated with a border of uncommon beauty, in which figures and arabesque ornament are combined. The lower part of this page shows the effect of careless handling. The introductory lines of the several poems are laid on in gold, and the initial letters are illuminated in gold and colors — all being perfectly fresh and brilliant. The pages measure 13 x 9⅛ inches, and the side margins are 3⅞ inches wide.

Taking all things into consideration, this book should rank next in importance in this collection to the Gutenberg Bible. It is even more rare than that, there being only about seventeen copies known, including those on vellum and paper. It is not strange that Vindelin felt the pride shown in the colophon above quoted. To have printed the FIRST EDITION OF THE FIRST PRINTED EPIC was no small honor. It preceded the first edition of Homer by eighteen years. These three books — the Gutenberg Bible, the Virgil of 1470, and the Homer of 1488 — will command forever the admiration and respect of educated people as the worthy objects of the highest form of skillful and conscientious typographical work.

1029 VIRGIL.— VIRGILII OPERA. VENICE: Aldus, 1501.

IN FINE:

VENETIIS EX AEDIBVS AL
DI ROMANI MENSE
APRILI. M.DI.

8°; bound in dark green morocco, fillets on sides, gilt edges, by C. KALTHOEBER.

This volume is remarkable as being the first printed with that Italic type which Aldus and his successors used so generally, and which is still known by that name. It was engraved by François de Bologne, as is shown by these verses at the foot of the Preface:

IN GRAMMATOGLYPTAE
LAVDEM.

Qui graiis dedit Aldus, en Latinis
Dat nunc grammata scalpta daedaleis
Francisci manibus Bononiensis.

This volume is EXCESSIVELY RARE. It is conspicuous by its absence from Lord Spencer's Library, and neither Mr. Beckford nor the Duke of Hamilton could obtain a copy even in tolerable condition. The present copy is perfect and complete.

Folio; bound in crimson crushed morocco super-extra, the sides beautifully tooled and ornamented with inlaid leather of various colors, doublé with blue morocco tooled after a similar pattern, gilt edges, by LORTIC.

While this is an ancient and excellent edition of the works of Virgil, it is not unlikely that the volume will be chiefly attractive to amateurs on account of its binding. It is the most elaborate specimen of modern binding in the collection, and can hardly be excelled in brilliant beauty. The work was done some years ago by the elder LORTIC when in his prime, and was regarded by him as one of his chefs d'œuvres.

1037 [VIRGINIA.]—A | True Decla- | ration of the | estate of the Colonie in | VIRGINIA, | With a confutation of such ſcan- | dalous reports as have tended to the diſ- | grace of ſo worthy an Enterprise. | Published by aduiſe and direction of the | Councell of VIRGINIA. | London: | Printed for William Barret, and are to be ſold | at the blacke Beare in Pauls Church-yard. | 1610. |

Sm. 4°; bound in calf, gold fillets, edges gilt over red, by Riviere.

This is a very early and important account of Virginia, and of exceedingly great rarity. Neither Menzies, nor Brinley, nor Murphy had a copy. Quaritch prices it at £120.

This copy is perfect and in admirable condition, with the exception that the top margins have been cut too close.

1038 VIRGINIA.—THE | NEW LIFE | of Virginea: | DECLARING THE | FORMER SVCCESSE AND PRE- | ſent eſtate of that plantation, being the ſecond | part of Noua Britannia. | Publiſhed by authoritie of his Maieſties | Counſell of Virginea. | LONDON: | Imprinted by Felix Kyngston for William Welby, dwelling at the | ſigne of the Swan in Pauls Churchyard. 1612.

Sm 4°; bound in dark blue crushed morocco, sides paneled with dentelle tooling, gilt edges, by Pratt.

It contains a portrait of De Vries by Vischer, fronting the title-page, a coat-of-arms on the verso of the title, and many copperplates, all in perfect condition. It is a complete and unusually fine copy of a work which is valued highly for its original information. Besides Hudson, no navigator except De Vries published a narrative of his voyages to New Netherland during the Dutch possession. The Hon. Henry C. Murphy translated that portion of the work which relates to America, and in his introduction says of De Vries:

"His narratives, where he speaks from personal knowledge, are entitled to the highest credit, for not only do they bear internal evidence of truth, but they have been corroborated in many instances by other evidence, and by the records which we have; and being his daily observations, taken down at the time, they have from this circumstance a value which no narrative formed from memory could possess. . . . His relation of the disgraceful and disastrous Indian war, in which he was an actor and friend of the Indians, is the only authentic one extant, of any completeness, except that of the government, and is, therefore, of great interest and value."

9 vols. 8°; portraits and plates. Half calf, gilt backs, marbled edges. Best Edition, with Notes and general Index.

The leading features of this edition may be briefly stated:

I. The publication for the first time of the Entire Correspondence of Walpole (2665 Letters), in a chronological and uniform order.

II. The reprinting greatly within the compass of nine volumes, the fourteen, far from uniform, volumes hitherto commonly known as the only edition of Walpole's Letters.

III. The publication for the first time of 117 Letters written by Horace Walpole, many in his best mood, all illustrative of Walpole's period; while others reveal matter of moment connected with the man himself.

IV. The introduction, for the first time into any collection of Walpole's Letters, of 35 letters hitherto scattered over many printed books and papers.

The correct collation of this volume is given by Mr. H. Stevens in his "Nuggets" as follows: the two titles as above; then 6 pp., signed "Thomas Nicholas," in Roman type; "To the Reader," 6 pp. in black letter; Text, black letter, in 89 leaves, 1 to 12, and 89, not folioed; folios 16, 17, 28 and 19, for 17, 18, 19 and 20; with woodcuts on the reverse of folios 16, 20, 46, 58, 85. "The discovery of the ritche Mynes | of Potosi & how Captaine Carauojell toke into his power," woodcut the same as on the first title, 3 pp. "The Table of the Chapters," 3 pp. The woodcuts on folios 58 and 85 extend beyond the text and are usually cut by the binder. In this copy they are intact, and the volume generally is not only perfect but in exceptionally good condition.

Folio; bound in brown morocco.

Map of Mediterranean Sea and Africa on title-page. This copy is perfect, but the index is placed after the seven preliminary leaves, instead of before them, as in the copies described by Harrisse.

This is a Latin translation of the collection of voyages ascribed to Zorzi by a Milanese monk called Madrignano. It contains, among others, the navigations of Columbus and Vespucius.

Folio; bound in morocco extra, leather joints, gilt edges, by LEWIS.

Dibdin says that perfect copies of this impression are of extreme rarity. This copy is from the Dent and Perkins libraries, and is said to be the best of the six perfect copies known. The estimation in which it is held may be inferred from the fact that Lord Charlemont's copy, wanting two leaves, fetched in 1865 £477 15*s*.

1112 JUSTINIAN.—JUSTINIANI INSTITUTIONES CUM GLOSSA.

IN FINE:

Optimi ingluii vir Jacobus rubei natione gallicus huius operis ī | stitutionum diligentissimus artifex extitit cui extremaz impressionii | manum venetiis. iiij noñ. quintiles. Jn=clyto duce Andrea uendra | mino felicissime imposuit. M.CCCC.LXXXJ.

Folio; bound in old grained morocco, gilt edges.

This copy of the Institutes of Justinian, printed on vellum by Jacob Rubeis, is said to be UNIQUE. It is the Pinelli copy, which fetched £36 in 1789. It is a beautiful example of typographical work and is in irreproachable condition. The first page of the text is illuminated with a brilliant miniature, and the capital letters are of the highest order of merit.

1113 PLUTARCH.—PLUTARCHI VITÆ PARALLELÆ, A DIVERSIS INTERPRETIBUS LATINÆ FACTÆ, A J. A. CAMPANO COLLECTÆ ET EDITÆ. ROMÆ, Udalricus Gallus. S. A. sed circa 1470.

Two vols. folio; bound in russia by ROGER PAYNE.

The FIRST EDITION of Plutarch's Lives. The appearance of the volumes would indicate that the printer appreciated the value of the material intrusted to him, and that he strove to put it into an appropriate form. Ulric Han was one of the first to establish a press at Rome, and he issued many notable works; but the Lives of Plutarch are not excelled by any of them in beauty and grandeur. In the case of the present volumes the labor of the printer was fittingly supplemented by that of the illuminator. The first page of each volume is ornamented with a beautiful border and initial letter in gold and colors. Taken all in all they are superb books and worthy of admiration in every respect.

1114 [SHAKESPEARE (WILLIAM).]—VENVS AND ADONIS. Vilia miretur vulgus, mihi flaunus Apollo Pocula Castalia plena ministret aqua. LONDON: Printed by I. H. and are to be sold by Francis Coules in the Old Baily without Newgate, 1636.

18°; blue morocco extra, gilt edges, by BEDFORD.

ONE OF TWO PERFECT COPIES KNOWN, the other being in the British Museum. The latter copy, although described by Lowndes as a fine one, is declared by Mr. Justin Winsor in his Bibliography to be badly stained and soiled and to have a few leaves mended. The present copy, with the exception of a slight mend on the title-page, MAY BE DESCRIBED AS ABSOLUTELY PERFECT. There are, from the date of the first edition in 1593 to 1636 inclusive, of all the editions combined, but thirty perfect examples. Most of these are in libraries from which they can never be sold, so that the collector can have little hope of ever procuring a copy.

Aside from its rarity, this book has an additional interest from the fact that it is supposed to be the first printed publication from Shakespeare's pen, as is indicated in the dedication which is as follows:

"To the Right Honourable, Henry Wriothesly Earle of Sovthampton and Baron of Tichfield.

Right Honourable, I know not how I shall offend in dedicating my unpolishd lines to your Lordship, nor how the world will censure me for chusing so strong a prop to support so weake a burthen; onely if your Honour sceme but pleasd, I account my selfe highly praised, and vow to take aduantage of all idle houres, till I have honoured you with some grauer labour. But if the first heire of my inuention proue deformed, I shall be sorry it had so noble a God-Father, and neuer after eare so barren a land, for feare it yeeld me still so bad a haruest. I leaue it to your honourable Suruey, and your Honour to your hearts content; which I wish may alwaies answer your owne wish, and the Worlds hopeful expectation.

"Your Honours in all dutie,

"William Shakespeare."

Title,

VITAS PATRUM.

On second leaf:

Here folowyth the right deuoute, mocheloweable, and recōmendable lyff of the olde Auncyent holy faders hermytes.

At end:

Thus endyth the moost vertuous hystorye translated out of Frenshe in to Englysshe by William Caxton of Westmynstre, late deed, and fynysshed it at the laste daye of his lyff.

Enprynted in the sayd towne of Westmynstre by me Wynkyn de Worde. M.CCCC.LXXXXV. (1495.)

Folio; bound in morocco extra, blind tooled; doublé with morocco, leather fly-leaves.

This volume contains numerous curious woodcuts by an English artist, which add much to the interest it naturally excites as the work of England's second great printer. It has many leaves with rough edges, and is complete with the title and last leaf containing Caxton's device and large cut on reverse. It is one of Wynkyn de Worde's most magnificent typographical productions, and has been considered the finest copy in existence.

How pure the joy, when first my hands unfold
The small, rare volume, black with tarnished gold.

"THE BIBLIOMANIA."

The Swedish Colony and Mission on the Delaware, planted in 1638, under Oxenstiern, wrested by Stuyvesant of Manhattan and annexed to New Nederland in 1655, and swallowed up by the English in 1664, together with the other Dutch possessions in America, was never really abandoned or forgotten by the parent state till 1791, when it had become permanently provided for and protected as part of the great republic of the United States. The best history of it is this by ACRELIUS, born in 1714, died 1800, who wrote first-hand, having been provost over its three churches, and rector of the old Swedish church at Wilmington for seven years, 1749–1756. Besides his own collections and experience, he seems to have used judiciously all previous authors who had touched or written on the same subject.

1153 THE MORALS OF ST. GREGORY—A BEAUTIFUL EARLY FIFTEENTH CENTURY MS. IN A FINE OLD BINDING.

MS.— GREGORY (SAINT and POPE). LE MORALI DI. THE ITALIAN TEXT WITH THE INTRODUCTION OF BISHOP LANDER. A MANUSCRIPT OF 343 LEAVES OF VELLUM WITH INTERLACED ORNAMENTAL TITLE-PAGE IN GOLD AND COLORS, AND WITH 10 LARGE AND 278 SMALLER CAPITALS ALL EXECUTED IN A SIMILAR STYLE OF ILLUMINATION OF THE FIRST HALF OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY.

Large 4to (12⅜ by 9¾ inches), in contemporary binding of red leather on wooden boards and with gilt tooling somewhat of the GROLIER style, the edges gilt and pointillé. SÆC. XV.

UNIQUE, SUPERB FIFTEENTH CENTURY manuscript, originally from the Salviati and Tocca libraries. It is very slightly wormed on a few pages at the end. The old binding is naturally somewhat rubbed and a portion of one side has been slightly damaged by water.

Gregory the Great, a father and saint of the Catholic Church, is here exhibited in lovely script and careful fifteenth century reliure, well becoming this celebrated sixth century Pontiff, who brought Britain within the pale of Christianity. The works of Gregory fill four folio volumes, and the above is the best known of the Saint of whom it has been written; "he devoted himself altogether to God."

COLOPHON:

"Imprimiose en la muy grande & insigne y muy leal ciuidad de Mexico, encasa de Iuau publos . . . Acabose de imprimir a quotro dias del mes de Mayo, de 1555," i. e., MEXICO, 1555.

Sm. 4°; morocco gilt, marbled edges.

THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST EDITION of Molina's invaluable Vocabulary, of which the EXISTENCE WAS DOUBTED by Ludewig and Brunet. A large and fine copy, the page measuring 7⅞ x 5⅝ inches, and the excellence of the impression not impaired by some slight water stains on the margin of portions of the volume, which has never been touched by a cleaner. Title-page in excellent facsimile in red and black. With the seven preliminary leaves. The above was lot 5771 of the Brinley Library, and was purchased at that sale for $315.

The author, a native of Spain, was taken in early life to Mexico, about the year 1523, where he soon learned the Mexican language, and even as a child he acted as interpreter between the first missionaries and the native Indians. He afterward devoted his life to the propagation of useful knowledge in the Mexican language, and his known works bear testimony to his great zeal.

Bernard Quaritch, in February, 1879, priced a copy which had the title and preliminary leaves in facsimile at £72, with a note that—"only five other copies are believed to be extant; all of them imperfect,"

The "Bibliotheca Mejicana" catalogue of Puttick & Simpson, London, thus speaks in 1869 of an imperfect copy—i. e., lot 1150 of that sale: "Of excessive rarity. Although mentioned by Brunet, he does not appear to have seen this edition. Until the last few years the folio Vocabulario of 1561 was the only edition known, and WAS QUOTED AS BEING THE EARLIEST SPECIMEN OF PRINTING EXECUTED IN THE NEW WORLD. A copy sold by us December 15th, 1871 (Count Mondidier's Library, lot 1908) produced £50. At that time it was the only copy known, its very existence having been doubted by bibliographers. A copy sold recently at Leipsic, extending to folio 250 only, and with the title and last leaf in facsimile, produced the same sum: and a third copy, also with facsimile title (these three being all the copies of which we have any note), produced nearly £60."

"C'est encore de nos jours le seul livre avec lequel on puisse étudier avec fruit la langue Nahuatl ou Mexicaine. Aussi est-il de la plus grande importance pour les études de philologie Americaine."—LECLERC, 1867.

"Nous n'en connaisons que cinq exemplaires."—Idem, 1878.

Par Robillard. Peronville et Laurent. Dedie à l' Empereur et Roi. PARIS, 1807.

4 vols. roy. folio; half red levant morocco. PROOFS BEFORE LETTERS.

The four volumes embrace 344 plates, engraved on copper.

1162 MUSEE ROYAL.— Publié par Henri Laurent Graveur du Cabinet du Roi, on Recueil de Gravures d'apres les Plus Beaux Tableaux Statues et Bas-Reliefs, de la Collection Royale, avec description des sujets, notices littéraires, et discours sur les arts. Dedié au Roi. PARIS, 1816.

2 vols. roy. folio; half red levant morocco. PROOFS BEFORE LETTERS.

This collection embraces 161 engravings on copper, and forms the second series of the Musée Français; but, according to Brunet, it received even more care in its preparation.

These volumes in connection with the Musée Français form a collection of engravings on copper, which for beauty and variety of subjects and skill of execution have never been excelled. The originals have been scattered, in many instances, and this is the only record of the collection as it primarily existed. Perfect condition.

1165 PLINY.— Plinius Senior Opera. Printed by N. Jenson. VENICE: 1472.

Folio; bound in full calf.

Dibdin describes this edition as "beautiful and magnificent." The text begins on folio 20 preceded by a title in capital letters. Bibliographers generally have not failed to describe in glowing language the beauty of this impression, which is the chef d'œuvre of the artist who executed it. The present volume is from the Hopetoun Library and is in every respect a fine copy.

1166 PLINY.— The Letters of Pliny, Junior. Without name of Printer or Place. 1471.

Quarto; vellum. THE FIRST EDITION.

Dibdin says: "This is a very elegant and uncommon impression. The edition was by Ludovicus Carbo, and as he corrected the works which issued from this press of Valdarfer, it is possible this work is from his press. The first leaf has an illuminated letter, with border extending around the top and side of the pages. The book is in unusually fine condition throughout, except that the lower part of the first leaf has been remargined. From the Hopetoun Library.

1167 [PTOLEMY.]—(The first and earliest engraved map known, where the New World is delineated, drawn by John Ruysch for the 1508 edition of Ptolemy.) ROME: 1508.
